FOREIGN.

—Prince Bismarck is ill, suffering from a recurrence of gout.

—Viscount Sandon has been re-elected to the British Parliament from Liverpool.

—The London Liberal journals publish highly eulogistic obituary notices of the late Charles Sumner.

—Disraeli has issued an address to his constituents, asking once more for their suffrage. He promises to defend the rights of all classes.

—The Pope has written to the Austrian bishops, inciting them to use all their influence to prevent the passage of the proposed ecclesiastical laws.

—The London Times in a leading article says: "So long as Gladstone remains in the House of Commons he is the only possible leader of the Liberals. Every true Liberal will accept his leadership on his own terms." The News says: "Gladstone's name is a tower of strength. The whole body of Liberals regard him as their natural head. Any other person would only be the leader of a section."

—Advices by mail from Buenos Ayres to the 8th ult. are received. The Presidential election in the Argentine Republic was attended with much turbulence and disorder. There were riots in the Capital, in which four persons were killed and twelve wounded. The disturbances in the provinces were still worse. The result of the election is not known. WEATHER REPORT.

War Department,
Office of the Chief Signal Officer,
Washington, D. C. 8 P. M., March 13, 1874.

Probabilities for To-day.

For New England, the Middle States and lower ake region, cold and fresh and brisk northerly to westerly winds, and partly cloudy weather will prevail, with areas of light snow on the the lower lake region, and thence northeastward to the Atlantic coast.

The Ohio and Cumberland rivers will continue to fall slowly.

The total number of marriages in Ohio in 1873 was 29,160. Equal to ten per cent of this number tried to get divorced during the year. On the 1st of July, 1872, there were 938 cases pending. Within the year ending July 1st 1873, 1,649 more suits were brought, and during the year, 1,124 divorces were actually granted. Divorce has been made pretty easy in Ohio. Of the total number granted, 509 were for absence and neglect, and 265 for adultery.

There were 19,753 new buildings constructed in Ohio during the year, at an aggregate cost of $12,123,861. Of these, 15,162 were dwelling houses.

The deaths and births for several years compare as follows:

	Deaths.	Births.
1870	29,568	61,198
1871	25,149	61,210
1872	25,202	58,957
1873	27,112	68,977

These figures show that the increase in population of Ohio, exclusive of immigration, is progressing very slowly. It is not fashionable now to increase and multiply.

Inside Rings of the U. P. R. R. to be Investigated.

The Boiler Experiments to be Resumed.

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.
WASHINGTON, March 13, 1874.

A Magnificent Tribute to Charles Sumner.

A magnificent tribute was paid to the memory of Charles Sumner at the Capitol to-day by the President, Cabinet, Congress and about twenty-five thousand people.

Union Pacific Railway Investigation.

The House Committee on Pacific Railroads will hold a special meeting on Wednesday to consult with the Government Directors of the Union Pacific Railroad in relation to the proposed legislation concerning that road. The rates of freight given the Wyoming Coal Co. will be compared with the rates given private parties for like service, and the operations of other inside rings will be investigated. The question of the further exemption of railroad lands from taxation, and the propriety of removing the Union Pacific Railroad office from Boston to some point on the line of the road, will also be considered.

The Moiety Abuses.

The Ways and Means Committee do not favor the entire abolition of the moiety payments to informers of revenue law violation, but it will endeavor to correct existing abuses.

Early Call on the Banks Anticipated.

The Controller of the Currency is ready to issue a call on National Banks for a report of their condition. It can be looked for now at any time, and will ask for a report of their condition up to the latter part of February, 1874.

Army Officers Mustered Out.

There were eleven army officers mustered out of service with one year's pay and allowances under the act of July 15, 1870. They were afterwards reappointed by the President, and now object to the action of the Secretary of War in deducting 50 per cent. of their pay monthly to make up for the year's pay given them as a present when mustered out.

The Secretary of War wants Congress to decide the legality of his action in the premiss, that those officers may be satisfied.

Care of Cattle While in Transit Over Railways.

The Committee on Agriculture in the House are considering a new bill relative to the care of cattle while in transit over railways. Instead of confining them twenty-eight hours in the cars without a rest, the new bill provides that they shall be kept in but twenty-four, and then let out into comfortable pens and fed and watered. They are to remain in these pens six hours instead of five, before being retransported. Where they they are first put into cars so arranged that they can be fed and watered in them, it is proposed to allow them to remain in the entire route, their removal for six hours not being necessary.

The Boiler Experiments at Pittsburgh.

The Supervising Inspector General of Steamboats has made out specifications for the work of repairing the boiler at Pittsburgh which was ruptured last fall. The commission in charge of those experiments intend renewing them as soon as the weather will permit. They will be made at Sandy Hook and Pittsburgh as heretofore. DIAMOND.

Southern Republicans and the Louisiana Case.

Wednesday's Republican contains an exhaustive editorial article upon "The Republicans of the South." It says:—

Since the provisional governments of the rebellious States were established, in 1865, the history of politics in the South shows a bloody record, comparable only to the characteristic disquiet of the Mexican States, with some of the highway robbery left out, and not a few murders added, and innocent men, women and children have alike been the victims of rapine and murder, while the property of black and white Republicans became an object of destruction for the midnight raiders. For years the courts, controlled by native whites of Democratic, secession and pro-slavery proclivities, were closed to all appeals to justice except from political friends. Even every conceivable method has been resorted to for the purpose of breaking down the Republican party. The reconstruction acts have been contested, and even the validity of the war amendments to the Constitution has been brought into question. Take the State of Louisiana for example. From the murder of a minister of the gospel while he was bearing a flag of truce to the mob down the stairway of the Mechanic's Institute in 1866, through all the riots in the city of New Orleans and in the country parishes, and down to the attempt to impeach Judge Durell, we have before us at a glance the ever-changing scenes of a ghastly panorama of political crime. It mattered not that the Kellogg Government was legally sustained by the judiciary, for it was a part of the conspiracy against Republicanism to overthrow it. The conspirators, either in the courts, before committees and on the floor of Congress, or with assassins' weapons in their hands, sought this common object. An unprincipled press, aided by lying press reporters, was at their command, and the country was so filled with contradictory statements that the people began to look upon the affairs of the State as muddled again. Thus it became the custom to characterize the Louisiana muddle as one of the vicissitudes of Southern politics, and the conspirators attempted to throw the responsibility upon the Republican party. The truth is readily ascertained. The first obstacle in their way was the Judge by whom the restraining injunction against the McEneryites was issued. His act, a bold and manful response to the dictates of duty, established the power of the Kellogg Government. To remove him by impeachment or otherwise became a perequisite to the success of their schemes. They did not dare to appeal from his action to superior judicial power, but shrewdly calculated that his disgrace would strengthen their cause; they charged him with infamous crimes, with collusion with political associates, and with soiling the judicial ermine by prostituting his sacred office for political objects. They hoped, at least, to succeed in obtaining articles of impeachment against him. This was the kind of disgrace which they believed would add strength or moral influence to their declarations that the Republican party of Louisiana is so disgracefully corrupt. They did not care whether he was convicted of the charges or not. In the interim of his trial by the Court of Impeachment they expected to gather power for the overthrow of the Kellogg Government. But, unfortunately for them, the Judiciary Committee of the House has found that their charges are not sustained by the evidence procured.

We do not hesitate, in view of all this, to warn Congress most solemnly that any attempt disturb the existing condition of affairs in Louisiana will be denounced by fair minded men as an act of despotic interference with a people who have suffered immeasurable wrongs already, and who are entitled, now that they have legally earned it, to some respite from the evils and horrors incident to political campaigns in the South. Let Governor Kellogg alone, and "let us have peace"—in Louisiana.

Mississippi River Improvement.

General Humphries, Chief Engineer, has written a letter to Representative Sypher, of the Committee on Railroads, in reference to House bill 2,153 for the improvement of the mouth of the Mississippi river. This bill authorizes James B. Eads and others associated with him to proceed in the work of deepening the channel of one of the outlets or passes of the river at or near its mouth into the Gulf of Mexico and to construct jetties along the banks of the river. Gen. Humphreys, having had a copy of this bill sent him for his opinion thereon, has written a letter discussing the importance of the improvements proposed and the plans for carrying them out. Gen. Humphreys recommends the establishment of a ship canal in the vicinity of Fort St. Philip, and urges a survey in addition to the preliminary one made along the route of the proposed Fort St. Philip canal. He thinks this preliminary survey fully establishes the practicability of constructing a ship canal in the vicinity of Fort St. Philip. Its practicability is authoritatively established, but until the best line of location is absolutely determined, he does not desire to recommend an appropriation for the construction of the canal, especially when the present state of the finances is considered, but by proceeding at once with the requisite investigations, he would be able to submit the project of the canal, including detailed plans and method of construction, at the next session of Congress. Respecting the application of the jetty system, Gen. Humphries remarks that the canal project is much more complete in every respect than any jetty project that has been yet presented. He states that the cost to the United States under this bill (2,153) of opening and maintaining a channel of 28 feet depth at high water is a least equal to the cost to the United States of constructing and maintaining a ship canal near Fort St. Philip.

If these improvements are to be made by contract, as provided for in the bill, Gen. Humphries asks if it might not be to the advantage of the Government to open the contract to competition. It is understood that in relation to these improvements of the Mississippi river the committee having the subject before them are in favor of allowing it to go over until next year, when they will more fully understand the wants and proper plans to be pursued. It is quite certain they will not recommend any appropriation for the work this session.

The Louisiana Troubles.

The old French State, as prolific in rebellions and other political troubles as la belle France itself, seems doomed to continue until another session, with but a moiety of its constitutional share of Senators. Her only Senator, West, will this week address the Senate on the subject, giving in detail the facts of the Louisiana troubles, taking a somewhat different view of the case from Senators who have heretofore spoken for and against a new election, and he is in hopes his presentation of the true facts may cause a stoppage to the further agitation of the subject. Other Senators will also speak upon the same subject this week. Well informed Senators and Representatives are of opinion the subject will not be seriously mooted again either in the Senate or House.

The New Funded Loan Bonds.

The failure of the negotiation abroad to place the bonds of the new funded loan on the market to any extent, and the abandonment of future plans to that end on the part of the Government, has advanced the value of those already outstanding to that rate, that parties intending to organize national banks on circulation already promised them refuse to organize at once, as they are compelled by the terms of the national banking laws to deposit these bonds with the Treasurer of the United States as security for their circulation, and they do not feel like purchasing them for that purpose at their present high price. In connection with this matter, Congress will, in the event of authorizing additional national bank circulation, provide for some other class of bonds than these five per cents for deposit as security for circulation.

Wrecks on the Jersey Coast.

The Revenue Marine Bureau, in accordance with arrangements made with Gen. Myers, Chief of the Signal Service, is in receipt of reports relative to the wrecks whenever they occur on the Jersey coast. It is expected that these reports will be telegraphed from other localities within a short time.

Duty on Almonds and Filberts.

The Treasury Department has decided that almonds and filberts are not exempt from duty under the provision for "fruit" in the 5th section of the act of June 6th, 1872, (which term only applies to perishable fruits), but are liable to duty. Almonds, at the rate of six cents per pound if in the shell, and ten cents per pound if shelled, and filberts at the rate of three cents per pound, under the respective provisions thereof in the 11th section of the act of June 30, 1864.

Public Expenditures.

The House Committee on Public Expenditures has not been called together yet this session. As it is a sort of auditing committee, its business is deferred until the close of the session.

Patent Office Reorganization.

The House Committee on Patents are preparing with a great deal of care the bill to reorganize the Patent Office, and when called upon to report will endeavor to have a bill that will meet the demands of the inventors, present the views of the committee, and also one that will work to the interest of the Government.

The committee has decided to take up the consideration of the matter at the session each Friday till the matter is finished, and will hear no other matter at such sessions unless it is the report of a sub committee, having some specific matter to dispose of.

It is expected that the committee will be called the latter part of the month. DIAMOND.

PRAYER CRUSADE.

Fasting and Prayer in Brooklyn.

NEW YORK, March 13.—Throughout Brooklyn to-day there is fasting and prayer for the temperance cause. At a meeting in Hanson Place Methodist Church, last evening, Dio Lewis took charge and organized to begin work as they did in the West. He called for all men who believe in Christian women and their work to get up, and hundreds jumped to their feet. He next called for the women who thought that intemperance was a curse, and were ready to help rid the country of it, to rise. The multitude of women were on their feet immediately. He then called for all the men and women who were ready to unite in the work, to get up. Nearly everybody was standing, and the applause and cheers attested the enthusiasm. Mr. Lewis pronounced it "magnificent." Rev. Dr. Steel, jumping up, said: "It is magnetic;" and Rev. Dr. Fulton, walking up and down the platform, cried, "Glorious, Glorious!" Resolutions were adopted by the clergymen yesterday, which opened by stating that in view of the general and profound interest in the subject awakened by the religious movement in the West, for which they were unfeignedly thankful, they believed it to be the immediate duty of the churches and ministers to renew and extend their efforts for the reclamation of the intemperate and for the protection of the community in the future. A motion to substitute "Total Abstinence" for "Temperance" in the resolutions was voted down, some of the clergymen saying if the change was made the support of many Christian gentlemen would be lost.

Probable Success of the War in Lafayette, Indiana.

LAFAYETTE, IND., March 13.—The temperance excitement continues. The County Commissioners to-day rejected eight application for license, making seventeen rejected, being the whole number of applicants. The ladies are circulating pledges and are doing good work. Baxter spoke at the Opera House to-night to an immense crowd. The saloon men are very much exasperated, and swear vengeance at the next election.

Mass Meeting in Chicago.

CHICAGO, March 13.—The woman's temperance movement was fully inaugurated here today by a grand mass meeting of ladies of various churches in the city. Four hundred ladies were present, and on the platform were several well known clergymen.

After devotional exercises and several brief speeches by various ladies, a committee of two ladies from each church was appointed to draft resolutions for the consideration of the meeting. During the absence of the committee there was more prayer and singing, and interspersed with short speeches urging an active war upon the saloons, all favorable allusions to the plan of visiting bands of praying women being received with marked expressions of favor.

Dr. McCheaney, by request, read a petition addressed to the City Council, praying them not to repeal or modify the ordinance requiring the closing of saloons on Sundays.

The Committee on Resolutions simply reported a resolution for the appointment of a committee of three ladies from each church to circulate a petition against the repeal of the Sunday saloon closing ordinance, the members of the committee to meet on Monday evening, and after a season of prayer, proceed in a body to the Council chamber, and present a petition in person to Council. The report was adopted by a unanimous vote. It was announced that temperance mass meetings would be held on Sunday afternoon.

The Dayton Saloonists Still Holding Out.

DAYTON, O., March 13.—Four praying and singing divisions of twenty women each invested a number of saloons to-day in spite of the cold weather. They enjoyed peace everywhere. They were hardly offended by the rudest tipplers at the bars they visited. The saloon keepers generally took pains to protect them from the cold and urged them to occupy the bar rooms. This is a great change, but does not indicate any relaxation in the determination of the saloonists to persist in the business. There have been no conquests. There are no prospects of any.

THE GALLOWS.

An Arkansas Desperado Hanged.

LITTLE ROCK, ARK., March 13.—Parties who left Clarksville at 10 o'clock this morning state that Sid Wallace, the Johnson Co. desperado, was to be hanged at 12 o'clock. Every preparation was made. A reporter was with the condemned man up to 11 o'clock P. M. last night, and throughout the conversation he wore the same confident air which has characterized him during his long imprisonment. He wrote a letter to the Gazette last night, which will be published to-morrow, in which he states that it is his last letter, that he is murdered by his enemies through the forms of law, without giving him the least showing. The scaffold was erected in the court house yard, just in front of the jail where Wallace was confined. Looking at it, he asked the reporter if he didn't think it was a mighty shabby affair upon which to hang him. He expressed no fear of death whatever, and stated his confidence of being borne away to heaven by angels. If turned loose now, he said, with a couple of six-shooters, he thought he could get away with a good many of his enemies, but he stated they were afraid to meet him. They were a pack of cowards, who had sworn away his life because they were afraid of him. The crowd in attendance at the execution is described by parties down from there to-night as the largest ever assembled in Johnson county. Wallace was related to one of the oldest and best families in this county. His father, prior to the war, was a member of the Legislature and a prominent Methodist divine. He was killed by jayhawkers about the close of the war. Sid had the reputation of killing several men besides the one for which he was hanged. There was also a sentence of four years in the Penitentiary hanging over him for an attempt at assassination of another man.

FOREIGN.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Letter from Mr. Gladstone.

LONDON, March 13.—Mr. Gladstone has issued his customary note requesting the presence of his supporters on the re-opening of Parliament. At the same time he has written to Earl Granville, saying: "Whilst discharging this duty, I feel it necessary that I should explain what my circular could not convey with regard to my individual position. For a variety of reasons, I cannot contemplate an unlimited extension of active political service. I desire my political friends to clearly understand that at my age I must reserve entire freedom to divest myself of the responsibilities of the leadership at no distant time. Need of rest will prevent more than my occasional presence in the House during the present session. I should be desirous, before the commencement of the seventy fifth session, to consider whether it would be advantageous to place my services for a time at the disposal of the Liberal party, or whether I should claim exemption from duties hitherto discharged. If, however, there are reasonable grounds to believe that, instead of the course which I have sketched, it would be preferable, in view of the party generally, for me at once to assume the position of an independent member, I should willingly do so, retaining all my desire for the welfare of the party, and if a leader be chosen or temporary provision be made for the present year, my successor should receive every assistance he might seek or I could render.

CHARLES SUMNER.

Funeral Obsequies of the Deceased Statesman.

The National Capitol Crowded with Mourning Spectators.

Solemn and Impressive Ceremonies.

The Remains En Route for Boston.

WASHINGTON, March 13, 1874.

The Remains Removed to the Capitol.

This morning the remains of Senator Sumner were removed from his late residence to the Capitol. The Committee of arrangements and Committee to escort the remains to Massachusetts, together with the pall bearers and Massachusetts Congress delegation, with the ladies of their families, had met there some time previous. These ladies placed upon the casket a large floral cross, and some sympathizing friends placed there two immense fern leaves. The Sergeant-at-Arms of the Senate and Sergeant-at-Arms of the House were also present, the former having special charge of the funeral arrangements. The casket containing the remains was placed in a hearse drawn by four white horses, and this was followed by one hundred and fifty colored men on foot, including Fred. Douglass, Pinchback of Louisiana, and John F. Cook, Register. The Congress committees and the Massachusetts delegation with their families as mourners, and others took their places in the carriages, and countermarched to the Capitol. A large number of persons, principally colored, were gathered in a part of the late residence of the deceased, some of whom, early in the morning, were privileged to see the remains of the late Senator. Senator Boutwell was not at home.

The procession having arriving at the Capitol, the coffin was removed to the rotunda and placed upon the dais and covered with flowers in the form of wreaths, crosses and crowns, each bearing a card giving the names of the contributors.

The Face of the Distinguished Dead was visible through the glass, and it was somewhat discolored, particularly near the nose. The body was dressed in a plain black suit, with the hands resting on the breast. There was on the west side of the Capitol, composed mainly of colored persons, and many of the females were in full mourning. The mass of human beings moved slowly up the steps towards the rotunda, all anxious to see the remains. Policemen kept the spectators in line, and they passed by the corpse, finding exit on the east side. The rotunda was heavily draped.

By half-past eleven the crowd about the Capitol was larger than ever witnessed before, not excepting during the noted impeachment trial of ex President Johnson. It was estimated that five thousand persons, at least, could not gain admission even to the corridors of the Senate galleries. The galleries of the Senate chamber were crowded before eleven o'clock, and hundreds were unable to obtain standing room. The chamber was elaborately draped, and a large number of additional chairs were placed upon the floor for the accommodation of the President and Cabinet, Justices of the Supreme Court, members of the House of Representatives, and other invited guests. The members of the Massachusetts Congressional delegation, who attended as mourners, were designated by black silk sashes, and nearly all were accompanied by their families. The Committee of Arrangements on the part of the Senate wore white silk sashes, and the pall bearers black sashes fastened by white and black rosettes. The members of both houses of Congress wore the usual badge of mourning.

All the papers and books were removed from the desks of the Senators, and upon each was placed a printed order of the funeral. Mrs. Secretary Fish occupied a front seat in the diplomatic gallery. At noon, although the weather was cold and the wind keen, immense crowds were still coming to the Capitol and thronging all the approaches.

At an early hour General Sherman, accompanied by his staff, General McDowell and other high officers of the army, and Admiral Lee, and other prominent officers of the navy entered the Senate Chamber in full uniform, and were assigned seats behind the bar. Shortly after twelve o'clock in citizens dress, made their appearance, and were conducted to reserved seats on the floor of the Senate, immediately behind the seats left vacant for the Justices of the Supreme Court, and adjoining those reserved for the House Committee appointed to attend the funeral. Among them were Sir Edward Thornton, Admiral Polo and Baron Lederer.

The catafalque was brought into the Senate chamber a few minutes before twelve o'clock, and placed immediately in front of the Vice President's desk. The mourners, consisting of the Massachusetts delegation in Congress, accompanied by the ladies of their families, Maj. Ben. Perley Poor, and a few other intimate friends of the deceased, entered at twelve o'clock from the Vice President's room, and were assigned seats on the left of the Vice President's table.

The Senate Called to Order.

Senator Carpenter, President pro tem. of the Senate, then called the Senate to order, and Rev. Byron Sunderland, Chaplain, addressed the throne of divine grace as follows: Oh, Lord our God, we come together this day to engage in the solemn ceremonies of an occasion which Thou has made for us amidst the engagements, excitements, and tumults of the present life. We beseech Thee, now that we are assembled in this chamber of representatives of the people, them selves to hear the voice of the Lord our God. Look down upon us with Thy favor, and sanctify to us all the ceremonies of this solemn day, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

The President pro tem. (Carpenter) directed that all officers of the Senate, clerks to committees, pages and others not needed upon the floor, retire to the cloak room to make room for the House of Representatives.

The journal of yesterday's proceedings was read by Secretary Gorham.

Mr. Buckingham said the burial of the late Senator Sumner would take place on Monday next. He moved that when the Senate adjourn to-day it be to meet on Tuesday. Agreed to.

Mr. McPherson, Clerk of the House of Representatives, appeared at the bar of the Senate, and announced that the House would attend the funeral of the late Senator.

A twenty minutes past 12 o'clock the House of Representatives was announced, and that body entered the Senate chamber, headed by Speaker Blaine, the clerk, and the committee on the part of the House to accompany the remains to Boston. The members of the House were assigned seats on the right of the Vice President's table, the Senators and others on the floor standing as the House marched in. The Supreme Court of the United States was announced, and the Justices, marshaled by Marshal Nicolay and Clerk Middleton, entered the chamber. The Justices were attired in their judicial robes. They were assigned front seats on the right of the Chair. Chief Justice Waite occupied the extreme right.

At 12:30 the President of the United States and Cabinet were announced, and every one arose as they entered the chamber. They were assigned seats in the front row to the right of the Chair, next to the members of the Supreme Court. The Committee of Arrangements and pall-bearers were announced. Immediately afterwards they entered, headed by Rev. Dr. Sunderland, and followed by borne by six policemen, white and colored. As the remains were borne to the catafalque, and the solemn procession marched on, Dr. Sunderland read: "I am the resurrection and the life," etc.

A Floral Offering.

The body having been placed upon the catafalque, a cross, sent by Miss Nellie Grant, was placed upon the casket. This cross was composed of callalillies, camelias, white rose buds and other delicate flowers.

All being now seated, Mr. Carpenter announced that appropriate to the occasion would be performed. Rev. Dr. Butler, Chaplain of the House of Representatives, then read from the Scriptures, and offered a fervent prayer. He was followed by Rev. Dr. Sunderland, Chaplain of the Senate, who also read from the Scriptures, and followed with the Lord's Prayer. The benediction was then pronounced by Dr. Sunderland, and Mr. Carpenter, presiding officer, said: "Now the Senate of the United States entrust the remains of Charles Sumner to its Sergeant-at-Arms and a committee apppointed to convey them to his home, there to commit them, earth to earth, ashes to ashes, dust to dust, in the soil of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts. Peace to his ashes."

The Religious Services

Departure of the Remains.

The coffin was then closed, and the flowers having been replaced, it was removed from the chamber, followed by the committee appointed by the Senate and House to accompany the remains to Boston, every one standing as the coffin was removed from the chamber. The members of the House of Representatives, Supreme Court Judges, President and Cabinet and other guests then retired in the order named.

The Senate then, on motion of Mr. Buckingham, at ten minutes past one o'clock, adjourned till Tuesday next. As soon as the Senate adjourned, a rush was made by a large number of women and some men to the vacant seat of Senator Sumner, to gain possession of the flowers which had been placed upon his desk, and similar attempts were made to carry off the floral decorations that had been removed from the catafalque and coffin. The crowd managed to seize many flowers before the officers of the Senate could interfere.

The coffin, having been carried out to the entrance of the Senate wing of the Capitol, was deposited in a hearse drawn by four white horses, and attended by mounted policemen, was followed to the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad depot by a procession of members of the Civil Rights League, a colored organization of this city, numbering about one hundred and fifty men, headed by Fred. Douglass and ex-Lieutenant Governor Pinchback. Next to this organization followed the carriages in charge of Sergeant-at-arms French, containing the Committees of the Senate and House appointed to accompany the remains to Boston.

Arrival of the Remains in New York.

NEW YORK, March 13.—The train bearing the honored remains of Charles Sumner, the Congressional delegation and personal friends of the deceased, arrived at the Jersey City depot at eleven o'clock to-night. There was quite an assemblance to witness the transfer to the

Among those present was a delegation of colored men from Brooklyn, who, upon the arrival of the remains in New York, and in company with a detachment of the Metropolitan Police, acted as their escort to the Fifth Avenue Hotel. A guard of colored men has charge of the remains until morning, when they will be unostentatiously transferred to the Grand Central Depot, and leave by the eight o'clock train for Boston.

Preparations in Boston.

BOSTON, March 13.—At the request of Mr. Sumner's friends, the funeral will be held at 3:30 P. M. on Monday, in Doric hall of the State House. The legislative and city committees will go to the State line to meet the remains, and return on Saturday afternoon, taking them direct to the State House, where they will be guarded until the funeral, when the services will be short and simple.

BOSTON, March 13.—The Governor has ordered the State police to receive the body of Senator Sumner to-morrow afternoon, and escort it to the State House, where Maj. Lewis Gaul, with a detachment of the Shaw Guard, will act as a body guard until the hour of the funeral. The immediate friends of the deceased at first objected to any military display whatever, as in opposition to the Senator's well known peace views, but as a guard was necessary in Doric Hall, it was deemed proper that the colored troops who first offered their services should be selected. An autopsy of the body will be made on Monday.

AN INTELLECTUAL TOURNEY.

The Essay Contest at the Pittsburgh Female College Last Night.

Last evening the essay contest—an event freighted with momentous issues to the friends and pupils of the Pittsburgh Female College—came off in the chapel of that institution. As the tickets were only a dollar each and no reserved seats, the marvellous moderation of prices attracted an audience that comfortably filled the chapel from the stage back to the rear door. The audience being good natured, waited patiently until about eight o'clock for the commencement of the exercises, and there was then just the faintest show of impatience. It quickly subsided, however, as the head of the column of youthful performers appeared at the side door, and all was serene as the young ladies performed the usual grand march down the center aisle, to the stage, upon which they took the seats assigned them with the wall as a background to the picture presented, and demurely awaited further orders. The only distinguishing characteristic of this graduating class, was in the matter of dress—the time honored, all white, being in a measure supplanted by materials of blue, green, buff, and other colors, even to the conspicuous contrast of brown and orange.

Dr. Pershing acted as master of ceremonies, and after an instrumental duett, by the Misses Ella Beacon and Louise Swearer, and the opening devotional exercises, the following programme was taken up and disposed of in regular order:

Overture—Prof. Mrs. Blessner and Miss Laura Sutherland.
Essay No. 1—"The Torch of Civilization"....
..........Miss Nannie Martin.
Essay No. 2—"The Triumphs of Thought"....
..........Alice Rea.
Song—"Dare I Tell"..........Mrs. J. Scudder.
Essay No. 3—"Roots and Branches"..........
..........Miss Israella Canan.
Essay No. 4—"The Man of One Idea"......
..........Mattie Horner.
Grand Fantasie—"Martha"..........
..........Prof. Blessner and Miss Lyon.
Essay No. 5—"Pearls"....Miss Alesa Helfrich.
Essay No. 6—"Passing Trains"..........
..........Celeste Spearman.
Song—"Scena and Prayer" from Der Freyschutz..........Mrs. Scudder.
Essay No. 7—"Hidden Forces"..........
..........Miss Menna Bastress.
Essay No. 8—"Prison Bars"....Mary Pershing

The essays, as a general rule—but every rule, of course, has its exceptions—were permeated a little too much with—well, perhaps etherialized theology expresses it. It is a pretty difficult matter to spice a "graduating essay" with lucid theological illustrations, and the attempt is apt to result in a substitution of gossamery, "goody," moral platitudes in place of the genuine article. Nevertheless the essays contained some literary excellencies which were worthy of the commendation bestowed upon them subsequently by Dr. Kerr, and which made the audience wish with, him, that there had been eight prizes instead of but one. There was also some improvement in the matter of reading, but the "college monotone" was not dispensed with enough to make the reading what it could be made.

The three judges selected to struggle with the perplexity of making a decision were Rev. Dr. D. R. Kerr, of the United Presbyterian; Rev. J. H. Crum, Plymouth church, Allegheny, and Gen. Wm. Blakely—the honors being thus distributed between theology and law. They retired with an injunction to return as soon as possible. In the interim Rev. Dr. Pershing made announcement of the opening of the Spring term of the college, told a funny story of a good elder in West Virginia, and spoke of the excellence of the new organ to be put up next week in the college, and which he had the papers for saying was the best instrument of its kind in the country,—thus pleasantly intermingling humor and business, and felicitously engaging the attention of the audience until the Judges returned.

Rev. Dr. Kerr was elected as the spokesman for the honored trio, and in a brief, but very happily worded presentation speech, managed to compliment the class and the college, and to present the successful contestant—No. 8—with an elegant writing desk, which is the President's Prize offered upon such occasions.

The audience then listened to an instrumental solo on the piano by Miss Wilson, and an instrumental duett by Professor Blessner and Miss Helfrich, after which they dispersed with the remembrance of an evening very pleasantly whiled away.

HARRISBURG.

A Light Day for Business.

A Field Day for Bills—Discussing Municipal Government — The Appropriation Bill Passed to a Third Reading — The Centennial Appropriation.

Special to the Gazette.
HARRISBURG, March 13, 1874.

SENATE.

A Shower of Bills.

A large number of bills were reported favorably from committees. They were principally those which came in from the House. Among them was the bill regulating the taxation upon corporations.

Mr. RUTAN introduced a bill to further secure the rights of married women.

Mr. ANDERSON, an act to fix the compensation of county officials.

Government of Cities.

The remainder of the session was occupied with discussion of the bill relative to the government of cities.

HOUSE.

Taxing Coal.

The bill fixing a tax on Anthracite coal was taken up from the table, and referred back to the committee.

Appropriations.

The General Appropriation bill was called up. A lengthy debate was anticipated, but these expectations were not realized. The bill without further discussion was passed. The vote stood 57 to 44.

Judicial Apportionment.

The members seem to have exhausted their logic and lore on the question of Judicial Apportionment, and when the bill on that subject was called up this morning, it passed to a third reading without much debate and with no material changes.

The bill requiring foreign railroad companies doing business in the State to have offices therein, was passed to a third reading.

Training Teachers.

The bill providing for a training school for teachers also passed to a third reading.

The Centennial.

Mr. CROSS reported favorably from Committee the bill to appropriate one million dollars to the "Centennial."

Mr. YOUNG reported favorably the act to divide the Eighth Normal School District.

Joseph's Jeered.

Mr. WEBB reported back a negative recommendation of the bill of Mr. Joseph's to fix a penalty of five dollars for the issuing of a "pass."

The calendar of bills was then taken up.

Mr. PIPER made an ineffectual effort to have the narrow gauge Railroad bill reported.

Mr. MCCREERY, of Venango, desired to have the Committee report the bill authorizing a geological survey of the State, but he was unsuccessful.

At half past five o'clock the House adjourned until next Tuesday. ARCTIC.

TO THE SELECT AND COMMON COUNCILS OF THE CITY OF PITTSBURGH.

The undersigned Viewers of Street Improvements in the City of Pittsburgh, appointed by the Court of Quarter Sessions of Allegheny county, and authorized by ordinance passed on the 2d day of May, A. D. 1873, a copy of which is hereto attached, to make an assessment of the cost and expense of constructing a public sewer on Spring alley, in said city, upon the property benefited thereby, under the provisions and in accordance with an act of Assembly entitled "An Act concerning Streets and Sewers in the City of Pittsburgh," approved January 6th, A. D. 1864, and the several Supplements thereto, respectfully report:

That having been first duly sworn and qualified according to law, they proceeded in the manner and according to the directions of said Act, to discharge the duties of their appointments; that having viewed the premises, they made an assessment of said cost and expense upon the property benefited, and caused a plot and statement to be made, as required by said Act; and having given to the owner of each lot ten days notice of the time and place of meeting, they met on the 3d day of March A. D. 1874, at the office of the City Engineer, in the City of Pittsburgh, heard all the complaints and evidence offered, and having made all modifications and corrections which they deem proper, assessed the cost and expense of constructing said sewer upon the following property, upon each for the amount set opposite the name of the owner thereof, viz.:

SATURDAY, MARCH 14, 1874.

BONDS at Frankfort 98⅞.

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 111⅞.

A SNOW STORM of great violence and large extent occurred in Europe, Thursday. The cities of London and Constantinople were visited with a particularly heavy snow fall.

WE are gratified to notice that King, the New York murderer, has been sentenced to imprisonment for life. He deserved hanging, but received about all that could be expected in New York.

MONDAY next is the day on which the young Prince Napoleon attains his majority. The friends of the Imperial family have made their way in large numbers to England, to join in the celebration of the day and the occasion. The young Prince will then formally represent his dynasty, as the heir prospective of the Imperial throne.

IF the brief telegram stating that the Emperor Francis Joseph, of Austria, has given permission to his cabinet to strongly oppose the movements of the Ultramontanes, be true, we shall have the religious war in Europe developed on a larger scale. It now seems likely that all the Governments of Europe, except that of France, will decide against the pretensions of the Ultramontanes.

JAY GOULD has succeeded in having himself elected as one of the Directors of the Union Pacific Railroad. As a result there is a plentiful supply of rumors of designs on that road, and of manipulation of its stock. It is said that the charter of the road permits an issue of $70,000,000 additional stock, and that this will be his policy. On the other side it is declared that a dividend of four per cent. will be insisted on, and the stock urged up. We will see what we shall see.

THE fact comes to the surface, as a result of the death of Senator Sumner, that several prominent gentlemen, in the Senate and House, are in very feeble condition of health. Senator Boutwell is in the list, although it was not generally suspected before, that his health was specially bad. The excitements, and occasionally great mental strain that fall on those whose ability makes them prominent serves, we do not doubt, to shorten the lives of public men.

MICHIGAN occupies an exceptional position as compared with any other State in the Union, in point of railway facilities. The Commissioner of Railroads reports to the Governor that on the 1st of January there were over 3300 miles of completed railroad in the State, valued at $115,000,000, whose running expenses were, last year, over $20,250,000, and whose earnings were over $32,000,000. These figures show an enormous development and a prodigious amount of business for a State of only a million and a half population. The rates of freight on State roads are lower than in most of the other States, and are but a little over one-third of what they were in 1864.

THE Democracy are pardonably jubilant over what they regard as their New Hampshire triumph. True, they have not elected their Governor, but they are confident the Legislature will do this for them. We stated several days ago that it was merely the outgrowth of Prohibition intermeddling that they are favored as they are—not any gain of Democratic strength. The Boston Globe, which is naturally well informed as to all the facts, says, "the result cannot be accounted in any true sense a Democratic victory. At least it is not due to the strength of that party. No Republican has gone over to the Democratic ranks. However much they may be dissatisfied with things as they are, they do not look for salvation from that quarter. They have simply failed to exert themselves, and the advantage will remain temporarily with their opponents." This and the Prohibition side-issue was a windfall for the Democrats. That is all.

WE ARE not surprised that those journals which make the most sensational display over the moiety system, join with it a demand for free trade. This was their cue from the start. They were exceedingly glad for something to hinge the demand upon, and this subject comes opportunely along. But we regard the report, already started, that the Ways and Means Committee will not seek to remedy the evils of the moiety system, but wait until they can entirely revise the revenue laws, as a little "previous." The wish is father to the thought. The entire demand is absurd. We have certain revenue laws; now and then, a merchant is found who either technically or fraudulently violates them; he is discovered by a treasury agent,—let us say Jayne; is threatened with prosecution, and compromises, of his own accord, rather than go to trial. For all this, the remedy proposed is the abolition of import duties. If, because some one is found ingenious enough to make a law oppressive, the law must be repealed, we will soon be without law. The plan is to keep the law, and suppress or punish those who infract or make oppressive the law.

THE FUNERAL.

Yesterday the brief funeral services at the Capitol, over the body of Senator Sumner, were performed by the chaplains of the Senate and House. They were simple, unostentatious, and appropriate. By this time, the remains are well on their way to Boston, where they will lie in state, in Fanueil Hall, to-morrow. The expressions that come from all parts of the country show how earnestly the man was loved, and how thoroughly his sterling honesty of character was reverenced. He was one of the honored children of the Republic,—wayward at times,—but loved always, as one of pure purposes and great services.

To what we have already published concerning his last hours we may add a statement of the nature of his disease, as made by Dr. Brown Sequard, who treated him in Paris, for the injuries resulting from Brook's assault. Dr. Sequard returned to this country from Paris, about two years ago, and has been Mr. Sumner's consulting physician ever since. He probably knows his case as perfectly as any physician possibly can. He says the convulsion that took place at death was caused by the rupture of the Senator's heart. During all of the day his limbs and the greater part of the body were cold, and it was evident that the heart had ceased to perform its functions. The disease from which Senator Sumner suffered was an affection of the nerves of the heart, complicated with symptoms of a rheumatic or gouty nature. The hardening of the coronary arteries and valves of the heart, which is observed after death in persons who have suffered from this complaint, has been called ossification, but the term is a misnomer; there is no real ossification, but a hardening and thickening of the parts by earthy deposits, such as are observed in the blood vessels and in the joints of rheumatic and gouty constitutions. Still, these symptoms are not constant, and cases are not unfrequent in which no morbid change has been found after death either in the heart or blood-vessels. Physicians generally believe it to be primarily a nervous affection. It differs from neuralgia in several important features, but resembles it in the presence of violent shooting pains. The seat of the disease, however, renders the same paroxysms more alarming. The name is derived from the Latin angere, to suffocate—from the sense of suffocating contractions of the chest, causing intense anguish and fear of sudden death. There are instances in which "angina pectoris" has been entirely cured, but on the whole the malady has a tendency to grow worse instead of better, the patient's health gradually deteriorating, and death finally taking place either from syncope during one of the paroxysms or from one of the complications by which the disease is frequently accompanied. The disease seldom affects young people, being most frequent in the meridian of life or in the descending phase of existence. It is also much more frequent in the male than in the female. Sir John Forbes found that out of one hundred and fifty-five cases one hundred and forty were males and but fifteen of the opposite sex.

Large numbers of persons in Washington viewed his remains, and the attendance at the brief funeral in the Senate Chamber was very large. To-morrow the people of Boston will be permitted to look, for the last time, upon his face. The more formal obsequies will probably take place on Monday, when his remains will be borne to their last resting place. The exact order of the services or ceremonies then to be observed have not been made public at the time of this writing.

THE STATE AND COLLEGES.

The adoption of our new Constitution has given rise to a question in this State, which may grow into prominence and importance. The principles that govern the Legislature in its enactments relative to taxation make it possible that Colleges, under the control of private parties or corporations, shall be subjected to taxation. We do not yet know the precise degree of probability that attaches to this, but those having our collegiate institutions in charge are greatly alarmed, and have made appeals to the Legislature in behalf of exemption. Nor are we informed just how burdensome this taxation would be, were it imposed. We suppose it would simply apply to the real estate, and not the endowments of Colleges, and would be of trifling amount. We may be in error, but these are our presumptions. We do not judge that endowments, when not in the form of real estate, will be subject to taxation. The law that will be enacted will come under that clause of the new Constitution which provides that taxation shall be alike on the same class of subjects. Hence, endowments as such will not be taxed, but real estate, as such, may be.

As we understand it, there is no disposition in the Legislature to tax colleges, as colleges—that is, to burthen educational institutions for the benefit of the State Treasury. If taxed at all, it will be because the State finds it necessary in order to meet its current expenses to levy a tax on real estate. If this is done, it will include colleges—or the real estate of which they are possessed. Hence to free these institutions, the State will be compelled to abandon the idea of taxing real estate at all, as it is not in its power to make discriminations. Whether it might indirectly do this by bestowing on the several colleges in the State a sum that will be equivalent to the amount of tax assessed upon them, is a question. But that they can be directly exempted, if real estate is taxed at all, we do not, for a moment suppose. It is, then, a question, whether the State shall abandon the idea of taxing real estate. We prefer that such a tax should not be levied, if it can be avoided; but if it cannot be, we do not see how it is possible to avoid taxing all real estate, unless in the form we suggest.

We know the question is one of great perplexity. Strictly speaking, our colleges are not eleemosynary institutions, unless in the sense of receiving benefactions. Certainly they do not dispense them, except in an indirect sense. For example, every college with which we are acquainted charges tuition, and unless there be exceptional cases, their students pay a given sum for the tuition imparted. This sum is not sufficient, we judge, to meet all the expenses of the colleges. This is supplemented by the annual income from the endowment. Hence, what is thus received may be said to be, in some sense, a benevolence conferred upon the students. In reality, however, our collegiate system has grown up on the same general theory as that of England—cheapness of education, reached by means of large endowments. Hence, there are competitions, and as some of our colleges are sufficiently endowed to be able to offer very low rates of tuition, and very superior advantages as well, others that can illy afford it are compelled to accept about the same terms. It is, in part, a question of competition.

There are, without doubt, private educational institutions in the State which ought to be taxed, if real estate is taxed at all. They are mere money-making enterprises, and are prosperous as financial ventures. We know not how many there are of such, but enough to form a proper exception to a general rule of exemption. There are, also, sectarian schools, which are managed in the interest of special religious ideas,—and are at variance, in spirit and purpose, with our entire educational system. These have no claim that can be regarded for a moment, to exemption from the operations of a general law. Where, however, colleges are free from these criticisms,—are not productive or profitable, in a monetary sense, and are not managed for the benefit of some religious sect, but are in consonance and sympathy with our public school system, we do not see why a general law might not be framed, appropriating to them a sum annually, equivalent to the tax imposed on their real estate. The amount will, we judge, be found to be so trifling as to seem ludicrous, when the tax comes to be imposed.

There are two or three assertions we find in a morning contemporary, to which we wish to offer an emphatic protest. One is, that the State is seeking to tax colleges. We have seen much in print of late to this effect. It is a libel on the State. We do not presume a bill has been framed, or is likely to be, with the avowed, or even direct object of taxing colleges. The taxation that will fall on college real estate, if it comes at all, will be incidental to the taxing of all real estate, and its special bearing on colleges will be the result of Constitutional requirement, and not of State, or legislative purpose. Whether the State shall forego a million of dollars in taxes, in order to save $5,000 to the colleges, is about the pith of the question. It is claimed that this tax will send our young men out of the State for collegiate education; yet in the same breath we have the admission that they go now! Both statements are about equally true. We assure all concerned, that they do not strengthen their cause by such reflections and statements. Pennsylvania has been liberal towards its educational enterprises, and is still disposed to be. But the Legislature cannot violate the Constitution for any collegiate institution whatever.

MR. DUNDEE, who resigned the auditorship of the Erie Road, directly denies having said to Vice President Robinson anything which could be misconstrued into a confession that his accounts were incorrect, or that he had made false statements to Watson. While he had sworn that the report of the road, as filed with the Secretary of State, was approximately true, Watson had published the report in London with the word "approximately" omitted. He gives as a reason for resigning the eternal iteration and reiteration of false entries in accounts, which were made to make the concern show profitably, in opposition to the fact that it was running behind, but that on all occasions President Watson was informed of the true condition, whether good or bad.

JAMES C. KING, found guilty of murder in the second degree, for shooting Anthony F. O'Neill, on Nov. 1, 1872, in New York, has been sentenced to the State prison for life.

SEWARD AS A MEDIATOR.

An Amusing Settlement of a Church Quarrel.

The following is a condensed sketch from L. B. Proctor's comprehensive work, "The Bench and Bar of New York:"

Mr. Seward was a sort of standing mediator of church difficulties in his county. Contending parties in those disputes and troubles which destroy harmony and brotherly love in churches would often mutually seek his mediation, and such was their confidence in him that each party would accept his advice and settle apparently irreconcilable quarrels and difficulties.

An amusing incident was once the result of an appeal to him in one of these church difficulties, which had for a long time threatened the destruction of a Presbyterian church in a neighboring town. At last it was decided to submit all these difficulties to Mr. Seward, and that his decision should be entirely conclusive. He consented to become the umpire for the parties —gave them patient hearing, and promised to send them his decision in writing. In due time he arrived at a decision, reduced it to writing, and enclosed it in a letter to one of the leading members of the church.

At this time Mr. Seward was the owner of a farm in another part of the county which was occupied by a tenant, to whom he wrote at the time he was about to mail his decision in the case of the church. In directing the letters the one intended for the church was directed to his tenant, while the one intended for the tenant was sent to the church. It was duly received by the proper officer, and the members of the congregation assembled to hear the decision of Mr. Seward, which was to heal all difficulties and dissensions.

After calling the congregation to order, the moderator, in appropriate language, explained the object of the meeting. "I hold in my hand," said he, "a paper which I am about to open and read to the assembly, which is, I have no doubt, the olive branch that is to restore harmony and prosperity to this church and congregation. It comes from one who, though a lawyer, loves the Lord and is a peacemaker." Then breaking open Mr. Seward's letter, he read the following:

"You will take particular care of that old, dangerous black bull, who often attacks people when not aware of his presence, and sometimes plunges at them openly, and you must carefully see to the repair of the fences, that they are built high and strong, and also see that the water in the spring is always kept pure."

There was a mystery about this advice that greatly puzzled the whole assembly, who for a long time sat in profound silence. The Moderator stood like one bewildered. Presently, however, he recovered himself enough to say:

"Brethren, I—I—don't exactly—that is to say, I—I can hardly see how this applies to our case. Suppose we have a season of prayer over it and ask the Lord for instruction."

Accordingly the congregation knelt, while several of the leading members fervently addressed the Throne of Grace. When the people resumed their seats one of the oldest, most esteemed and pious members of the church arose.

"Brethren," said he, "nothing can exceed the wisdom of Mr. Seward's decision. I have no doubt the Lord directed him when he wrote it, for it is just what we need, and I know it will restore peace and harmony among us. Look at its wisdom. The direction to keep the fences in repair is to admonish us to take good heed in the admission and government of the members of this church. We must see to it that only those who are regenerated are admitted into our fold. The direction to keep the spring open and pure means that we must not let our faith, our love of God, and our love for each other get cold and clogged, and our daily walk and conversation corrupted by the weak and beggarly elements of the world. And we must, in a particular manner, set a watchful guard over the devil—the old, dangerous black bull, who often attacks us when we are not aware of his presence, and who, with his long horns, plunges at us openly, and who has made many savage plunges at this church in particular."

These remarks opened the eyes of all the people present to the wisdom and enlightened piety of Mr. Seward's decision. It was unanimously resolved to abide by it, and peace, good will and prosperity were restored to the church, brotherly love took the place of hatred, and piety increased. Nearly forty years have passed away since this remarkable decision was received by that church. Its organization has been continued down to the present time with uninterrupted prosperity.

What effect Mr. Seward letter had on his tenant has never been known.

PERSONAL.

GEN. ROBERT E. LEE'S name lives after him. Over 300 young Virginians bear his name.

GEN. JOHN S. MARMADUKE will probably be the Granger candidate for Governor of Missouri.

JONES and Marsh, the ward inspectors, in Rochester, who were prosecuted for registering and receiving the votes of Miss Anthony and other ladies, have been re-elected inspectors by large majorities.

SAID a great Congregational preacher

Laid two eggs in his hat—
And thus did the Hen-re-ward Beecher!

THE "champion runaway slave," Mr. William Craft, is in Springfield to get help to carry on his proposed farm school in Georgia, for the benefit of his colored brethren. He has just raised $3,000 in Boston, which pays for the farm of 1,800 acres near Savannah, and now he wants $2,000 for a schoolhouse and appliances.

MARSHAL BAZAINE, in his "seclusion" at Sainte Marguerite, only goes out for two hours in the day, walking in the court belonging to his prison, under the surveillance of two keepers. His meals are furnished by the boatman of the island, who is, at the same time, sutler of the troops. His guard is composed of ninety soldiers of the line and five jailers.

THE Hon. Robert Lowe, Home Secretary in the Gladstone Ministry, departed for a moment from the severity of his classical mind, and made a joke at the last Cabinet dinner he and his colleagues attended. It was somewhat solemn, but yet remarkable, coming from Mr. Lowe. He appealed to Premier Gladstone to be allowed, in the absence of any bishop or chaplain, to say grace, and taking the speechless amazement of his chief for assent, he slowly said, "Let us eat and drink, for to-morrow we die."

THE new Duke, until lately Marquis, of Westminister, is probably the richest man in England. He is the eldest son of Richard, second marquis, by the Lady Elizabeth Mary Leveson Gower. He was born in the year 1825, and was educated at Eaton and at Balliol College, Oxford. He represented the city of Chester in Parliament from 1847 to 1869. He has had a family of ten children, seven of whom survive. His eldest son is Victor Alexander, Earl Grosvenor, who was born in 1853, and was educated at Eton. The Grosvenors, of whom the newly created duke is the head, descend from Gilbert le Grosvenor, of whom the heralds tell us that he held in Normandy, before the Conquest, the post of Le Gros Veneur, the chief hunter, under the dukes of that province.

ITEMS OF INTEREST.

SPAFFORD & BROS., of New York, have obtained an attachment against the property of the Samana Bay Company, in a suit to recover $50,000.

THE Detroit Board of Education has resolved to apply to the War Department for an officer to teach military tactics, &c., in the High School of that city.

THE employing morocco dressers of Lynn, Mass., have resolved not to give employment to any fisher who contributes to organizations ordering or supporting men now on the strike. Extra policemen guard the factories at night.

IN reference to a distinguished surgeon's opinion that Chang and Eng might have been safely separated in life, the New York Advertiser thinks that

Of all sad words to a Siamese twin
The saddest are these: It might have been.

SPEAKING of the half naked statue of Washington, which cost $50,000, in the East Capitol Park, Grace Greenwood wittily says that his outstretched arm points reproachfully toward those glass cases in the Patent Office, where hang his much desired habiliments.

ANOTHER appropriation of $50,000 is asked from the New York Legislature to pay counsel engaged in the prosecution of ring suits. Already $75,000 have been appropriated. Of this sum Lyman Tremaine received $25,000, and Wheeler H. Peckham over $24,000. Charles O'Conor gave his services gratuitously.

THERE is a company in England formed for the purpose of making brick from iron slag. The bricks are put on the market at from £3 to £4 per 1,000, though they can be made at a profit for 50s. The slag brick weighs about two pounds more than the ordinary red brick, is much harder, and, it is claimed, will bear a much greater strain.

A GOOD WIFE is like a snail. Why? Because she keeps in her own house. A good wife is not like a snail. Why? Because she does not carry her all on her back. A good wife is like a town clock. Why? Because she keeps good time. A good wife is not like a town clock. Why? Because she does not speak so loud that all the town can hear her.

THE steamship Scandivavian and Phoenician, which recently arrived at Portland, Maine, both report very severe wether in crossing the Atlantic. The decks were swept fore and aft smashing the boats, and and carrying everything before it. The bridges of both vessels were badly damaged, and in both cases the officers on them at the time were more or less severely hurt. On the former vessel one of the passengers, Lieutenant Bisbee, a young English army officer, committed suicide in his berth, by shooting himself through the head with a revolver. He had been suffering from ill-health, and the rough weather of the passage so affected his already shattered nerves that, it is supposed, in a fit of despondency he committed the rash act.

THE estimated revenue of France for 1874 amounts to $514,705,125, and the expenditure is expected to be $512,832,725, leaving a surplus revenue of $1,872,400, not much, but still a surplus. These figures were much the same for 1873. The heaviest item of expenditure is $150,000,000 for interest on the 3, 4, 4½, and 5 per cent. consolidated debt. The war estimate for 1872 provides for war materials and an effective strength of only 442,000 men and officers, at a cost of $97,000,000, which is 2,000 men less and $2,000,000 more than last year. The diplomatic and consular expenses for 1874-5 will be only $2,022,000. The President's salary is $180,000 per annum, but the National Assembly costs nearly $2,000,000 a year, a large sum.

A Scene in the South Carolina Legislature.

The Columbia correspondent of the Charleston (S. C.) News describes a recent scene in the South Carolina House of Representatives as follows: "The House was at this time in great confusion. Holmes, of Colleton, called upon the chair for the yeas and nays, but the call was not recognized by the speaker until the vote had been announced, whereupon Holmes arose to a question of privilege, which was overruled. Holmes, however, insisted upon his question of privilege, and began to make a speech. It was then that a most ridiculous scene ensued. While the member from Colleton was going ahead slowly with his question of privilege his brother members seemed to be suddenly seized with a species of epizootic or chronic influenza. It was evidently a deliberate, premeditated design to cough the member down, and taking in the situation at a glance, he became proportionally wrothy. He first called upon the speaker to protect him, to which the Speaker replied that the gas was probably escaping. This made the member more wrothy, and he threw out the 'insinuendo' that some of the members were choking with one of Joe Woodruff's $250,000 pills. Mackey appealed to the Speaker to send for a physician. But the coughing continued, until the member from Colleton began to realize that his brother members were not disposed to hear him, whereupon he gracefully took his seat, and the symptoms of epizootic disappeared."

MRS. MILLER, residing in Hanover township, Beaver county, while returning recently from a visit to see a sick child, was thrown from her horse, by which she was considerably injured.

A MUFF, supposed to have belonged to Miss Mary Snyder, the lady who so suddenly disappeared from Easton, a few weeks ago, has been found floating in the Delaware river near that place.

A TEAMSTER named John Carrol, had his right leg broken on Saturday last at Titusville. He was engaged in loading timber on to his wagon, when by a mishap the timber fell, breaking his leg in two places.

THE St. Petersburg Progress of last week says: On Tuesday last Constable DeRolph arrested "detective" Clay on a warrant charging him with obtaining some $1,200 worth of goods on false pretense from Mrs. E. C. Vogan, of Pittsburgh.

IN the case of W. A. Hull, vs. M. A. Hull, of Petroleum Centre, suit for divorce, on trial at Franklin, last week, the case was decided in favor of Mrs. Hull, a bill of divorce being granted on the ground of willful and malicious desertion without cause.

THE Altoona Radical learns that the effects of the late Johnstown Voice were purchased for the Echo establishment in that city, and that the Echo will soon appear under new management, with J. F. Campbell, Esq., the old publisher of the Voice, as publisher.

THE Lee & Plumer well at Millerstown, with the hundred and seven acres of land comprising the Divener farm, was purchased by Vandergrift & Forman on Saturday for $92,500. The well is still doing six hundred barrels, at which rate it is the largest in the oil region to-day.

MESSRS MURPHY & ROWAN, of the Freeport planing mill, have commenced the erection of a derrick above the Buffalo creek bridge to bore for gas. Mr. Milt. Morrison, an experienced workman, is the driller. The cost to put the well down twelve hundred feet is estimated at from $4,000 to $5,000.

THE North East Sun says: One day last week one Weidner induced the wife of a Mr. Cupps, who domiciles in the vicinity of Shadduck's Corners, to elope with him. They came to North East, but were hotly pursued by Cupps and overtaken. Mrs. C. says Weidner promised her a nice ten cent calico dress, if she would go with him.

FRIDAY night Mrs. Sarah Kneedler, of North Wales, Montgomery county, drowned herself in Wissahickon creek. Mr. S. was about 70 years of age, and for several months has been considered mentally unsound, so much so that on the night in question she was locked in the room to prevent escape. Being unable to open the door, she leaped from the second story window.

EDWARD SCOTT, of Scranton, while suffering from temporary insanity, escaped from his home on Monday morning last, without hat, coat or shoes, and suddenly disappeared in the direction of the river. He was seen about six o'clock in the evening, since which time all trace of him has been lost. He is about forty years old, is five feet six inches in height, dark hair and dark complexion and wears full whiskers.

DR. EARLY, as agent of the Northwestern Mining and Exchange Company, has let a contract with S. Jackson, Esq., of Elk county, for the erection of one hundred and fifty houses this spring, at a point some where between Early and Centerville. The houses are to be occupied by the miners of the company, and the settlement is to be called Dagu-cahonda City. This company is making extensive preparations for the mining of coal during the coming summer, as the building of so many houses would indicate.

A VERY serious stabbing affray occurred in Erie last week between two boys named Otto Brandt and Charley Woeckner. The boys are about eleven years of age. The two were playing on the street when they began quarreling, and Brandt struck Woeckner with a pocket knife. A deep wound was made, the knife passing between the second and third ribs on the back at the right side and upward. After receiving the wound, Woeckner ran several blocks and dropped to the ground, where he was found and conveyed home.

A POTTSTOWN canary bird escaped one day last week and lit on the eaves of a house. Two gentlemen concluded to capture it. They adopted a new plan which they thought was a sure thing. One went out on the roof with a bucket of water, which he was to throw on the bird, and as it fell the other should catch in before it should strike the ground. The man on the roof threw the water at the bird, the man below reached for it, but instead of getting the bird he received the contents of the bucket. The bird has since been captured.

JOHN PAPENFUSE and Alfred Boehm, two boys aged respectively thirteen and fourteen years, while engaged in playing marbles in Meadville, one day last week, disputed about some unfairness. Boehm seized a club and struck Papenfuse on the head, knocking him down, and then struck him several times on the back of the head, inflicting wounds in which it was thought would prove fatal. Papenfuse was carried home insensible, but the next day he was better and will recover. Boehm was arrested and held to bail in the sum of five hundred dollars for trial.

A FLAGMAN named Phillip McGoe met with an accident on Tuesday, which will probably result fatally. In the vicinity of Kittanning Poin, while he was standing on the bumper of a car, his dinner bucket fell to the ground, and in making an effort to recover the same Mr. McGoe missed his footing, and fell from the car with great violence. At the point where he came in contact with the hard frozen surface is a steep declivity for a distance of about fifty feet, down which the unfortunate man commenced to slide and was unable to help himself. On, on he continued to go with fearful rapidity, now coming in contact with some brush and anon being terribly jostled by striking a worn out railway tie, until at last he is dashed against the ominous looking rocks in the channel below, where he was picked up bruised, battered and bleeding, and in an insensible condition.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

THE mammoth new steel rail mill at South Bethlehem has been started.

IT is said that the Clearfield Fire Brick Company have the largest works in the State.

THE Valley Rail-mill, Youngstown, Ohio, started again last week, at Pittsburgh prices.

THE Fanny furnace at West Middlesex, Mercer county, is now making 200 tons of No. 1 foundry iron per week.

THE Allentown Rolling Mill Company have issued scrip in denominations of $1, $2, $5, and $20, doing away altogether with the issue of orders.

THE Covington (Ky.) Rail mill, Jas. G. Kyle & Bro., is as busy as ever, and running with the old force, who returned to their positions under a compromise.

THE Ohio Valley News, of Martin's Ferry, says that favorable progress is being made in the organization of the "Ohio City Glass Company." It reports that thirty Pittsburgh operatives have taken stock.

THE first keg of nails was made at the Ohio City Iron and Nail works, at Martin's Ferry about a week ago. The factory will have sixty nail machines, and there is room for doubling this number. All sizes of spikes and nails will be made.

THE Ashland (Ky.,) Journal says: "We last week stated in round numbers that the Ashland furnace yield for the three years ending Saturday, the 21st inst., was 36,000 tons of pig metal. February 22, 1871, to February 22, 1872, her 'blowing time' was 312¾ days, and the yield 11,053 tons 648 pounds. Second year 'blowing time' 310¾ days, yield 12,523 tons 318 pounds. Third year, 'blowing time' 314¼ days yield, 12,736 tons 1,158 pounds. Total 'blowing' days 937¼. Total yield 36,302 tons and 1,158 pounds. The average yield per day being about 39 tons."

THE American Manufacturer's English correspondent says: In the North of England trade is slightly improving. There are not many works in the district that are totally unemployed, though some are running but short time. The orders, however, generally relate to small quantities, and in many cases the prices are scarcely remunerative. What would probably be the best thing that could happen would be that the prices of pig metal and coal and coke should so decline as would enable the producers of finished iron to take lower terms, and so tempt customers into the market. Rails of ordinary sections are quoted at £10 5s. to £10 10s.; plates £12 15s. to £13; common bars £11 5s. to £11 10s; puddled bars, £7 4s. to £7 7s. 6d. at the works. Pig iron is variously held, but the general rates are: No. 1 85s. to 86s.; No. 3, 79s. to 81s.; No. 4, 74s. to 76s. net cash. The foundry trade is somewhat slacker. There is a better enquiry for miscellaneous iron. Plates are not quite so brisk. The engineering trades appear to be well engaged. The coal trade shows a downward tendency; and coke is cheaper and more plentiful.

Latest Advices Concerning Money and Stock Matters.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
SATURDAY, March 14, 1874. }

The continued ease in monetary affairs has started a new agitation. It is with reference to the probability of the banks declaring dividends. It is intimated that the anxiety of New York banks to do this has led to their loaning freely on call, particularly to the stock brokers, who put up railroad stock as security. Should anything occur to cause a decline in the value of these shares, they would sell them, and thus precipitate a panic, local, however, to New York. We are confident, however, that our banks are not involved in this, but are holding their funds, chiefly for home use. It is thought better to reduce the percentage of dividends, or pass them altogether, to taking any risk that is thought to be dangerous.

As to the stock market in New York, the situation is peculiar and, in the judgment of some intelligent observers, hazardous. The bulk of the stocks is held by the leading professional speculators, while the smaller professionals and the noble army of outsiders, having been very generally cleaned out by the panic, are operating only on a very small scale. These clique shares, as they are termed, were bought so much below present prices, that, if they could be marketed without material depreciation, the profits would be enormous, and the holders would be only too happy to part with them. Large amounts have, doubtless, been marketed by at least one heavy dealer, who has succeeded in passing his shares over to his fellows, who are anxious to sustain the market until some favorable legislation shall be obtained from Congress, but who on the discovery of the trick that is said to have been played upon them, may be disposed to sell out too, and thus be under shelter should the storm prove to be a severe one.

In Philadelphia, the money market is easy, and so limited is the demand for loans or for the discount of legitimate business paper that borrowers of this character find the market in that anomalous condition that they may pretty much dictate their own terms as to rates. We see call loans quoted at 4@5 per cent., strictly first-class two named paper at 6 per cent., strictly first-class single name paper at 6@7 per cent., loans secured by Government bonds at 5 per cent., do. secured by first-class bonds and shares at 6 per cent.

One of the resolutions passed at the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company on Tuesday directed the Mayor to appoint a committee of seven shareholders to select a ticket of candidates for directors to be voted for at the next annual election of the company, on the 24th instant. In obedience to that resolution the Mayor named as the seven to make the selection: N. B. Browne, Henry Morris, Nathan Myers, Allan Wood, Robert Whittaker, Daniel Steinmetz and Charles H. T. Collis. It is to be hoped that this committee will be able to make such a selection as will command the unanimous support of the stockholders.

The stock market, yesterday, did not exhibit very material fluctuations.

NEW YORK, March 13, 1874.

The customs receipts were $716,000, and the Treasury disbursements $242,000. The dry goods imports for the week were $2,545,213. Sterling closed firm at 484@484½ for sixty days and 487@487½ for sight. Gold ranged 111⅝@112⅜, and closed at 111¾. The carrying rates were flat to 4 per cent. The clearings amounted to $26,000,000. State bonds were dull and nominal. Governments closed firm. Stocks at the opening advanced ⅛@⅜, but this was soon lost, and during the hour the market was weak, with the lowest prices for the day current. The decline ranged ⅛@1⅝. The heaviest decline was in Lake Shore, and Western Union was next. The sales between 10 and 2 o'clock were 125,000 shares, of which 32,000 were Western Union, 14,000 Union Pacific, 10,000 Wabash, 21,000 Lake Shore, and 14,000 Northwest.

Condition of the Markets at Home and Abroad.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
FRIDAY, March 13, 1874. }

Trade in general merchandise continues dull, and the markets present nothing that is really new or important. The demand for the leading staples continues light, being restricted entirely to supplying immediate wants, while as regards values, there have been no important changes since the date of our last report.

APPLES—Sales in a jobbing way, at $2,50@4,50 per brl., according to quality and condition.

APPLE BUTTER—65@75c ℔ gallon.

BEANS—Continue to come in freely, and as the supply is accumulating, the market is scarcely as firm as it has been; we now quote at $2@2,25 per bushel, the outside figure for navies.

BUCKWHEAT FLOUR—4@4¼c per lb.

BUTTER—There is a continued active demand, hence, notwithstanding the receipts are liberal, there is no accumulation, and prices are fully sustained; we continue to quote at 40@43 for good to prime, and 45 for choice.

CHEESE—Continue firm with a steady local trade, but there has been no change in prices; prime Ohio Factory, 17@17¾; New York, 18@18¾.

CRANBERRIES—Quoted at $13@15 ℔ brl., as to quality.

COUNTRY BACON AND LARD—Shoulders, 6@7; Ribbed Sides, 7@7¾; Clear Sides, 8@8¾; Hams, 9¾@10¾. Country Lard, 8@9.

DRIED FRUIT—There is more inquiry for Apples, and prices are firmer but unchanged, ranging from 8¾@10c. Peaches quiet but firm and in light supply; halves, 14@15.

EGGS—Notwithstanding the cold weather, the arrivals continue liberal and prices are barely maintained—most of the sales are at 18@19, although some dealers quote at 20. Pickled eggs cannot be disposed of at any price.

FLOUR—There is a firmer feeling under the influence of recent advices from the sources of production, but no change, whatever in prices. We continue to quote spring wheat flours at $6,75@7,25; red winters, $7,75@8,25, and white, $9@10. Rye Flour, $5,50@5,75.

GROCERIES—The grocery trade continues dull; at least our merchants generally so report it, but it is hoped and expected that there will soon be a change for the better. Coffee continues very dull; importers and large holders generally are anxious to unload, and the very fact that the offerings are large and increasing, has curtailed the demand very largely from the interior, as jobbers realize the situation and will not take hold until the market becomes more settled. Sugars are also weak with a drooping tendency—there is scarcely any raw Sugar being sold in this market.

SUGARS.—Patent Cut Loaf, 12¾; Crushed, Powdered and Granulated, 11¾; Standard A, 10¾; B, 10¾; Ex. C, 10; Circle C, 9¾; Franklin Extra C, 9¾; Franklin No. 2 Extra C, 9¾; American Extra C, 9; Yellow Sugars, 8 to 9, as to quality.

COFFEE.—Choice Rio, 31@32; good to prime, 30@31; fair, 28@29, Roasted 1 pound packages, 35c; loose, 34¾.

MOLASSES—Strictly prime new crop New Orleans, 80c; fair to prime old, 70@75.

SYRUPS—Extra White Drips, 70c; Sugar Drips, 60c; Amber, 60@65; lower grades, 35@40, as to quality.

RICE—Choice Carolina, 9¾; Patna, 8¾c; Rangoon, 8@8¾c.

GRAIN—There is no movement whatever in Wheat in this market, and in the absence of sales, quotations may be given nominally at $1,50@1,55 for red winter, and $1,60@1,65 for white. It is claimed that it can scarcely be laid down here at present prices, yet there is no demand as the mills are full, and there is no outlet. The Oat market is firm as the arrivals continue light, but prices are not quotably higher; 53@55, as to quality. Ear Corn continues scarce, and the supply on spot is scarcely equal to the demand, and there is not much in sight; we continue to quote at 7@75. Shelled Corn is also in very limited supply, but there does not seem to be much inquiry for it. Rye quiet and unchanged at $1@1,05.

HOMINY—$5@5,50 ℔ barrel.

HAY—There is some inquiry, and while the market is overstocked with poor stock, prime hay is in light supply and is bringing full rates; we continue to quote at $17@22 per ton on wharf and track, as to quality.

MAPLE SYRUP AND SUGAR—The arrivals of Syrup continue large, and prices are weak and drooping; we now quote gallon jugs at $1,45@1,55. Sugar in grain, 14@15.

MILL FEED—Bran continues scarce and in demand; may be quoted at $1,10@1,15 per cwt. Middlings quotable at $1,40 to $1,50.

ONIONS—Continue dull but unchanged, ranging from $4 to $6 ℔ brl. according to quality.

POULTRY—Dressed Chickens, 12@13; Ducks, 14@15; Turkeys, 15@17.

PROVISIONS—Extra Sugar Cured Hams, ℔ lb, 12¾. Ex. Sugar Cured Shoulders, 9¾; Sugar cured Breakfast Bacon, 13 cts. Extra Sugar Cured Dried Beef, 16¾. Beef tongues, $7,50 ℔ dozen. Bacon Shoulders, per lb, 8c. Bacon Rib Sides, 9¾c. Bacon Short Rib Sides, 9¾c. Bacon Clear Rib Sides, 10c. Mess Pork, $16.50 per barrel. Refined Lard for summer use, in tres, 10¾. Do. half bbls, 10¾c. Do. bkts 11¾. Do. in 3 lb. caddies, 12¾c. Do in 5 lb. 12¾c do. in 5 lb. pails 13¾c ℔ pound. Do. in 5 lb. pails, 13. Do in 5 lb. pails, 13¾. Ham Sausage, 10c.

POTATOES—Prime Peach Blows still quoted at $1,25 on track, and $1,35 for small lots out of store.

RAGS—Woolen very dull; quoted at half a cent per ℔; Cotton still quotable at 2¾@3c.

SALT—Is quoted at $1,60 ℔ brl. by the car load, and $1,85 in a jobbing way.

SEEDS—Clover Seed is not coming in as freely, and there is a decidedly firmer feeling, although prices remain as last quoted: $5,50@5,75 per bushel. Timothy is still quotable at $3,25@3,50, and Flax Seed at $2,20@2,25.

PITTSBURGH IRON AND NAIL MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
FRIDAY, March 13, 1874. }

While, as noted in our last report, orders are not being rushed in as rapidly as they were a month ago, and while the market is a shade weaker in sympathy with the raw material, the mills are all busy, and with very few, if any, exceptions, running to their full capacity. Notwithstanding there are those, as there always are, who are apprehensive in regard to the future, and while, as already intimated, there is a lull for the time being, the general outlook is regarded as being very encouraging for an active spring trade, so far at least as Pittsburgh is concerned. There is no question but what the stock of finished irons, both in the hands of jobbers and consumers, is unusually light, and there is no reason apparent why, with the exception of for railroad construction, there should not be an average consumption this year, hence it is confidently expected that our mills will have all they can do during the balance of the season, although they will have to work on small margins. It is claimed, notwithstanding the recent shrinkage in the raw article, that it is still higher relatively than the product, and as the former is being sold below the actual cost of making it, it is not reasonable to expect any further shrinkage in the latter. There is a continued good demand for Nails; orders continue to come in freely, and the factories, as a rule, although working up to their full capacity, are unable to keep up with their orders. In regard to prices there has been no change, and we continue to quote on a basis of $4 with the usual discount of two ℔ cent. for cash. It is evident, from the heavy shipments, especially by river, that the Wheeling factories are running to their full capacity, and from all that we can learn, there, as here, prices are fully sustained.

The demand for Steel is steadily increasing, and the mills here are all busy, running full time, while as regards rates, there have been no recent changes of any consequence.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
FRIDAY, March 13, 1874. }

The market for Crude Petroleum continues firm, notwithstanding the depressed condition of the product, and prices have still further advanced; quoted to day at $1.75@1.80 per brl. at Parker, according to pipe line, with sales of Fairview reported at $1.77¾, and Union held at $1.80. Some of the small outside lines are selling for immediate shipment, for want of tankage, considerably under above quotations, but they are not regarded as a criterion of the market. It seems strange that the Crude should stiffen up so in the face of the fact that there has been no movement in refined for some time, but it may be attributed to speculation—there must be a speculative demand, otherwise, the market could not be sustained, as the consumption is very meagre. Refined was also reported firmer but quiet. April, delivered in Philadelphia, quoted at 15, and May at 15¾.

There is no movement in barrels, notwithstanding prices are down below cost, but the trouble with refiners is that they are all full. We continue to quote nominally at $1,65 for countries, and $1,70 for city make.

PIG IRON AND BLOOM MARKET—WEEKLY REVIEW.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
FRIDAY, March 13, 1874. }

The pig iron trade continues very much depressed, commission merchants report that the market has not been as dull at any time since the panic. There is a difference of from one to three dollars per ton between buyers and sellers; it is said that considerable good forge irons could be placed at about $28, cash, and $29 4 mos. but there are but few sellers of choice brands under $29 and $30, and some are still holding at $31. Foundry irons are also very dull, and there is not enough doing to establish quotations. It is hoped and expected, however, that there will be a general revival in trade next month, and the general impression seems to be that prices cannot go any lower, in view of the fact that even present asking rates do not cover cost.

Following sales were reported:

RIVER NEWS.

State of the Rivers, Movements of Steamboats, &c.

The weather continues very cold, and the Allegheny river was putting out considerable ice yesterday; it is not likely however, that the present cold snap will hold out much longer. The stage of water last evening was scant 7 feet and falling.

The Carrie V. Kountz, from St. Louis, arrived, and the Mallie Ragon, from Wheeling, arrived and departed.

The Exchange for Cincinnati, and Rover for St. Louis, both with good trips, departed. The Juniata will be the next Cincinnati packet.

The Iron Mountain, Captain W. C. Gray, is announced for St. Louis and the Upper Mississippi forthwith.

The Esperanza was to have left St. Louis on Thursday for this port.

Captain R C. Gray, who was in St. Louis, attending the meeting of the directors of the Northern Line Packet Company, left there for Pittsburgh on Wednesday.

—The St. Louis Democrat, of Thursday, in referring to the death of Captain T. W. Dunnica, says he was born in Kentucky, and removed Westward while yet a boy. His early career on the river is remembered by many of our merchants and boatmen yet hale and vigorous, among these Captains Pat. Yore, Henry Symmes and W. R. Carter, Messrs. R. A. Barnes, R. J. Lackland, &c., &c. He owned, at different times, several steamers, which he commanded, in the St. Louis and New Orleans trade, and while in this vacation he earned the good will of every person whose acquaintance he made. He was generally known as one of the best boatmen on the river, a pious and exemplary man, and possessed of great energy and good judgment. Previous to going on the river he learned the trade of a ship-carpenter. He built the steamer Maria at Cincinnati. She was the finest and largest boat of her day, her capacity being 1,600 tons. It was in 1844 she was built. Previous to this—in 1838 or 1839—he built the Meteor at Pittsburgh. This boat made the trip from New Orleans to St. Louis in five days and five hours—the fastest run that had yet been made. At this early date, his warm and lasting friend Captain Pat. Yore, was learning the river as pilot, with Hardim Rabirds. He bears willing testimony to the charity, capacity and popularity of the deceased. The Pawnee is another steamer which Captain Dunnica built and ran in the Lower Mississippi. Retiring from the river, he spent several years in the capacity of Steamboat Inspector for the St. Louis Board of Underwriters, a position for which his experience eminently fitted him. There will be many sincere mourners at his grave.

—Friday's Cincinnati Gazette says: The Juniata, for Pittsburgh, had her roof "literally" covered with furniture.—Captain Booth is loading his barges for New Orleans at rates 5c. per cwt. less than steamboat prices.—The following towboats arrived from Pittsburgh yesterday with tows of coal: Eagle, Smoky City, N. J. Bigley, Dick Fulton No. 2, Belle McGowan, Enterprise, Nellie Speer, Sam. Brown, Sam. Parker, Joseph A. Stone, Joseph Walton and Grand Lake No. 2.—About 7 o'clock yesterday morning the Lookout arrived from Kanawha, with seven barges salt, one barge cannel coal, and a barge of tan bark. Attempting to pass under the Newport bridge, she struck her coal barges against the south channel pier, which stands in the middle of the natural channel, and sunk it, entailing a loss of about $2,000 to the Peytona Cannel Coal Company. The barge contained about 8,000 bushels coal, consigned to Byrne & Speed, Louisville.—Wharfage collections for the week ending last evening loomed up to $389 15.

—A crevasse occurred in a levee on the Mississippi side of the river at Sunflower Landing, 40 miles below Friar's Point on Monday night. The water in rushing through with fearful velocity carrying everything before it. The country between the crevasse and Vicksburg will be entirely flooded. No loss of life is reported, but numbers of horses and cattle have been swept away.

—The Grand Lake No. 2 arrived at the foot of the falls late Tuesday evening flying light, being only five days out from the mouth of Red river. She lost eleven hours by the storm, consequently her running time was only four days and thirteen hours, which is the fastest time ever made by any towboat, and is entitled to the blue ribbon. Hugh Bevington and John Douglass were her pilots.

—The Louisville Courier, of Thursday, says: There are at this time a large number of coal merchants of Pittsburgh in the city awaiting the arrival of the coal fleet now under way and yet they are not happy. There is said to be no margin for profit either to the miner, middleman or consumer, and there is a deal of grumbling going on among all hands.

—The Lucy Bertram and J. H. Johnson, the Cincinnati & St. Louis express line boats, have arrived at St. Louis from Alton Slough, where they wintered. The Johnson is ready for service, and the Lucy needs but little docking. One of these steamers will leave for Cincinnati the latter part of this week.

—The towboat Fred Wilson No. 2 on the 7th inst. in the Lafourche Eddy, seventy or eighty miles above New Orleans, on her down trip, swamped two of her barges containing 30,000 bushels of coal, which were sunk and will prove a total loss.

—The number of bales of cotton shipped southward by Captain John T. Washington from Memphis per river steamers since the season opened four months ago, is 47,392 bales, and he expects to increase the list to 75,000 bales before the season closes.

—W. H. Brown is in Memphis awaiting the arrival of the Lioness. It is rumored that he will reduce the price of coal at that point to 20c ℔ box.

—Captain Tennyson has laid the Government steamer up opposite Shreveport, to await the probable "Jam" to take place if the river continues to rise above.

—The Memphis packets are carrying through passengers from Memphis via Cincinnati to New York for $25.

—The Bermuda is soon to enter the Evansville and Cannelton trade on opposite days to the Mary Ament.

Liquor League Meeting.

The Allegheny County Liquor League held a meeting yesterday afternoon in their rooms in Maltby building, Fifth avenue. The only business of importance transacted was relative to the passage of the new license law repealing local option. It was determined to make a still more vigorous fight at Harrisburg in the interests of the liquor dealers.

Money Drawer Robbed.

Last evening about 7 o'clock a boy entered T. Theophilus' trimming store, 166 Federal street, Allegheny, and ran up to the desk in which the money was kept, which was in the middle of the room, and pulled out the money drawer and emptied it of its contents, and ran out before Mr. Theophilis, who was in the rear part of the store, could intercept him. He succeeded in making his escape.

Insane and Indigent.

Yesterday Judge Collier ordered the removal of Thomas A Richardson an insane man, from the Twelth ward hospital to Dixmont. The patient's malady is of a violent type, and he has on several occasions escaped from this hospital. Finally the superintendent petitioned the court to dispose of him under the provisions of the act of assembly for the relief of the indigent insane. Richardson is an Englishman and has only been in this country about fifteen months.

Obituary.

We are pained to announce the death of Capt. Thornton A. Smith, which occurred on Thursday afternoon last, at his residence, No. 141 Centre avenue. The deceased was in his fifty-first year at the time of his demise. He was a gentleman who was well known in this city, and who, by his amiable disposition of character, had won many sincere friends. Mr. Smith was a printer by trade and some years ago occupied the position of foreman in the GAZETTE composing room. His kindness and urbanity of manner won for him the esteem of all with whom he came in contact. For several years past he occupied an important position in the postoffice, in which he gave satisfaction. His death will cause sincere regret among a wide circle of friends. His funeral will take place to-morrow afternoon at two o'clock, from his residence.

Wooden Buildings.

The Committee on Wooden Buildings met last evening and transacted the following business. Petitions refused:

S. W. Zahniser, for privilege to remove a frame shop on Snowden alley one square north of the present location.

Adam Grine, frame stable on Forty-first street.

W. Hollenbrook, frame addition on Wylie avenue, near Kirkpatrick street.

Sarah McDonald, two story frame on School alley.

The ordinance granting permission to Stewart Cunningham to erect an iron-clad stable in the Sixth ward was referred to a special committee.

The following were granted:

Jane Jones, to erect a frame building on the line of the P. W. & B. Railway, Sixth ward.

Hubbard, Lippincott, Bakewell & Co., a temporary frame on Dinwiddie street.

J. B. Nobbs, iron-clad shop on Spring alley, Twelfth ward.

ANNIVERSARY MEETING.

Reviewing the Work of a Year.

To-morrow evening the regular anniversary meeting, of the Ladies' Home Missionary Society, will be held in Christ Church, corner Penn avenue and Eighth street. This organization is identified with the M. E. churches in the community and for many years has been carrying on a noble and practical work—in bearing spiritual, and temporal comfort as well, into many a darkened home. The society does its work unostentatiously, but none the less effectually and its yearly record forms an interesting page in local Methodistic annals.

The meeting to-morrow evening promises to be an interesting one to all who appreciate practical efforts for the bettering of humanity. The programme of exercises embraces reports from the officers and City Missionary, Rev. J. C. High, in which will be given full details of the year's success. These will be followed by short addresses by the Revs. S. M. Vernon and J. Vannote. Rev. Bishop Foster is also expected to be present and participate in the exercises and those who are friends of home missionary work will be repaid by an attendance at the anniversary.

COUNTY ASSESSMENT APPEALS.

The Commissioners Board at Work—Bellevue and the Twenty-second and Twenty-third Wards to be Heard To-day.

The County Commissioners yesterday, sitting as a Board of Appeals, gave audience to about one hundred and fifty persons from the Twenty-fourth, Twenty fifth and Twenty sixth wards. The great majority were fully satisfied after the new assessments were explained and did not press their claims for reductions. To-day Bellevue borough and the Twenty-second and Twenty third wards will be heard, and on Monday the Sixth, Seventh, 8th and Eleventh wards. It is necessary to state here, for the information of those who do not understand the equalization style of assessment, that the district assessors assess the property first and make returns to the Commissioners. The latter then take a few assessments at random from any one district, and if they are found too low it is taken for granted the others were made out in the same proportion, and an advance is made on the whole. If individual cases of injustice result from this, the parties have their remedy before the Board of Appeals, where they are expected to bring evidence that their claims for reductions are good and allowable. In some country districts the assessed valuations have been made as much as fifty per cent. lower than in adjoining townships, and the Commissioners have very properly added thereto. This advance only appears, however, to real estate, personal property not being subject to such wide difference of valuation with our rural assessors.

The Board opens for business every morning at ten o'clock.

CRUSADE COMMENCED.

A Saloon in Allegheny Visited by the Ladies—The First Effort Not Very Successful.

On Thursday afternoon the ladies' temperance crusade, for a short time, was practically commenced in Allegheny, but with results not very satisfactory. About four o'clock, Mrs. Wm. B. Ross, Mrs. Elliott and Mrs. Motheral, President of the Manchester Branch Ladies' Temperance Union, started out in an impromptu manner for a crusade on their own hook. They called at 233 Franklin street, the saloon of Mr. Thos. Byrne. The gentleman received them kindly and treated the ladies politely. They told him that they had heard that he was going to quit the business. To which he replied that he might in the spring. They then asked him to sign a pledge that the building shall not again be rented as a saloon. He would not do that. He had a lease of the premises for another year, but he thought the owner would object to having a saloon again on the place. The ladies next requested him not to sell the liquor he had left over when he quit, but to give it to them to pour out. This he also refused to do, and said that all he possessed was invested in the liquor, and if they wanted to buy it and pay for it, they could do what they pleased with it. They then tried a little coaxing process with him to induce him to leave off the sale of liquor; but he refused. They then threatened him, but it was all the same. He was polite, but determined to do as he pleased. The ladies, after thanking him for his kindness and telling him it was the first saloon visited, said they would pray for him and departed.

BOARD OF HEALTH.

Regular Meeting Yesterday—Vital Statistics—Sanitary Affairs in the City—A Discussion on Increase of Salary.

The Board of Health met yesterday in regular session, and transacted the following business:

Health Officer Gray presented the following report for the month of February: Nuisances abated, 285; permits issued, 72; amount received from permits, $36; fine of Jacob Maise, $25; total, $61; expenditures, $4.75; suits instituted, 2; deaths in February, 241.

A sample of milk seized upon by the Sanitary Officer last week was examined by the Health Physician, who reported that it answered to all the tests for pure milk under the microscope, and in consequence a qualitative analysis was unnecessary.

Health Physician Snively reported that during the month of February there were 241 deaths, an increase of 29 over the corresponding month of last year. Of this number there died from the more important diseases: pneumonia 33, consumption 24, scarlet fever 17, bronchitis 16, typhoid fever 15, congestion of the lungs 9, measles 8, whooping cough 6, diptheria and croupe 3 each.

Mr. Fleming presented a letter from H. H. McCormick, Esq., relative to the power of the Board to regulate or increase the salaries of the officers connected with the Health Department, in which he expressed the opinion that the Board had such power independent of the Legislature.

Dr. Arthurs moved that the salary of the physician to the Board be $700 per annum, and requested that the ayes and nays be called.

Dr. McCandless objected to any increase on the grounds that the salary was settled on at the first meeting of the year, and it was without precedent to bring up a question again after it had been already passed upon. He offered the following as an amendment:

WHEREAS, The members of this Board one year ago, secured an act of the Legislature making the term of office three years, and at that time increased the salary of the physician double the amount it had ever been before, and Councils made an appropriation of ten thousand dollars a year, and the appropriation being entirely used up in salaries and two hundred dollars more, and other applicants for the position at the former salary, therefore

Resolved, That this Board declines making any increase in salaries.

This resolution was lost and the question recurred on the original motion, which was passed by a vote of four ayes to three nays.

Dr. McCandless requested that his protest be entered on the minutes for the reasons stated in his preamble printed above, and also that he proposed carrying the matter to a higher tribunal.

Meat Inspector Lindsay desired the Board to approve of a plan he had for the better regulation of matters at the East End stock yards. It is proposed by a party there to establish a corral of the nature of a live stock hospital—when crippled animals arrive, instead of killing them and sending the carcasses to the rendering works, those that are not too far gone shall be entered at the corral, properly branded for indentification by the Meat Inspector, and there cured if possible of their injuries. Referred to a special committee composed of Meat Inspector Lindsay, Health Officer Gray and Mr. Edwards.

Adjourned.

THE HONORED DEAD.

Action of the Colored People on the Death of Charles Sumner—Meeting Last Evening—Commemorative Resolutions Adopted.

Last evening the colored people of this vicinity held a meeting to take some action expressive of the sense of their sorrow upon the death of Hon. Charles Sumner, in the A. M. E. church, corner of Wylie avenue and Elm street. The pillars and chandeliers were draped in mourning, and upon the rear of the edifice in front of the pulpit was a picture of the dead Senator, draped in mourning, and below, in a frame, his last words: "Take care of my Civil Rights bill," also draped appropriately.

The meeting was called to order at eight o'clock by Mr. J. H. Loomis.

The following officers were appointed: President—Mr. Barney Mahoney; Vice Presidents—Messrs. F. J. Hall, A. J. Billows, George B. Knox, Wm. H. Simpson, George W. Massey, A. D. Johnson; Secretaries—John H. Jones and reporters of the press.

After the officers had been chosen, the following Committee on Resolutions was chosen: H. Anderson, J. H. Loomis, B. H. Hall, John H. Jones and Samuel Robinson.

The committee immediately retired.

Mr. F. J. Lum spoke on the life of Mr. Sumner; of his many great acts and the great good he had accomplished for the colored race.

Mr. George D. Ware was next called upon. He expressed himself very feelingly on the virtues of the dead Senator. He said that he remembered the first speech made by Mr. Sumner in Massachusetts, in behalf of peace against war. That speech made an impression even on distant nations. The fruits of Sumner's work were visible to day. The repeal of the Missouri compromise bill was the entering wedge that killed slavery and brought the bright light of freedom to the colored race. The man for whom we mourn to-day was truly a philanthropist. A man who loved his fellow man. When our race lay palsied by the strong arm of the nation; when we had no one to defend our rights, he came forth to defend our rights and rose to the Zenith as our defender. Our friend has gone, but he has left a legacy behind him.

Mr. Anderson of the Committee on Resolutions reported the following:

WHEREAS, In the dispensaton of an inscrutable Providence, the Hon. Charles Sumner has been suddenly stricken down by death while in the discharge of his Senatorial duties in the city of Washington, on the eleventh day of March, 1874, and at a time when so sudden a dissolution was most least expected; therefore, be it

Resolved, That while we bow with sad hearts to the will of that Providence "that tempereth the winds to the shorn lamb," we feel that in the death of this distinguished and honored statesmen the colored race have lost a long-tried and ever true and devoted friend, who has stood by and suffered for us in the darkest days of American slavery. We had learned to love and revere him as America's greatest champion of equal liberty, and the beacon light to guide us over the rough shoals in our transition sea, and eventually anchor us in the haven of political and civil equality before the law.

Resolved, That in his death the country has lost a learned and able Statesman, whose great intelligence, uprightness and purity of character had won for him the sincere respect of all with whom he came in contact, both in Europe and the United States, and his name will be handed down to coming generations as one of the ablest Senators that ever occupied a seat in the Councils of the Nation.

Resolved, That we regard it as eminently fitting and proper that the colored people of the United States should unite at once in an effort to raise at least $100 000, to be used in the erection of a monument commemorative with his great labors in our behalf, and thus perpetuate the name of our lost friend and the world's immortal Sumner.

Resolved, That this meeting appoint a committee of ten persons to act in conjunction with the National Committee, of Washington D. C., and when the said council shall have completed their arrangements, this committee of ten now to be appointed, shall proceed to collect money and deposit it in a bank until called for by the National Committee.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted.

It was moved that the President appoint the committees called for in the resolutions, this evening. Carried.

The Chair appointed the following gentlemen, Messrs. J. Owens, J. Grandeson, E Bailey, H. Brown, F. J. Hall, E Johnson, J. Gaither, M. Ditcher, J. E. Russell and Alfred Gibson, as the committee.

Mr. J. H. Johnson, after the committee had been appointed, made a few appropriate remarks.

Mr. James Jones also followed and spoke briefly.

Mr. Murray, S. Barker, and others followed with short speeches, after which the meeting adjourned.

The Allegheny Meeting.

A large meeting of the colored citizens of Allegheny was held in the Avery Mission Methodist Episcopal Church. An organization was effected by calling Mr. B. F. Pulpress to the Chair and the appointment of Dr. D. J. Saunders as Secretary.

Prof. S. A. Neal, Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions reported the following:

IN MEMORIAM.

In the midst of these first hours of a sorrow so poignant that words seem like unmeaning symbols of the thoughts we strive to utter, and falter on our tongues, because they are inadequate to indicate the deep measure of our grief for the sudden death of the man of our hearts' best hopes, it is fit and proper that we, the colored citizens of Allegheny, should give public expression to the profound anguish which bows our heads in mourning, by reason of the untimely death of the Hon. Charles Sumner.

The fountain of grief which swells our hearts because of the death of the noble Sumner, is greater than the bitter desolation of heart-rending woe which came upon us, when our emancipator, Lincoln was murdered by the assassin's hands. Charles Sumner was always our friend, faithful and just to us; but he died without seeing the great work completed which will yet wreath his sacred memory with immortal honor and glory.

But his work will not be interrupted nor neglected. His great measure of justice, the Civil Rights bill, will yet be consummated. And now, as an evidence of our ever living gratitude to this great and good friend of our race be it most solemnly

Resolved, That pausing not to ask whether our lamented benefactor, Charles Sumner, was a believer in this or that creed, but believing that his name is written in God's book "as one who loved his fellow men, and that his glorified spirit is to-night in the celestial abode of the blessed, we will embalm in our hearts the memory of his great deeds; we will cherish his name as a treasure and hand it down to coming generations as the title of a man who was noble and godlike in example and principles; and as evincing our deep sympathy with his only relation in her bereavement, and with the State of which he was our honored and noble representative we will drape our dwellings and churches in mourning, to remain in this condition until after the mortal remains are entombed, and as a testimonial of our respect we solicit the ministers of our several churches to hold solemn memorial services in his honor on Sunday, March the 15th.

Resolved That we implore the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States to grant the last request of the great statesman, which will be presented to those august bodies by Judge Hoar, of Massachusetts. To "Take care of his Civil Rights bill" will be to pass it, and thus cancel the last instalment of debt due the race whose steadfast loyalty to the Government and its institutions has been proven in the most trying ordeal of the nation's history.

Resolved, That as the experience of past times teaches us that "history repeats itself," that after Elijah came Elisha, and after Moses, Joshua; so we will pray that God in His beneficent dispensation, will give to our race a successor to Charles Sumner, who shall be the instrument in completing our redemption.

Resolved, That we respectfully ask the newspapers of Pittsburgh and Allegheny, also the National Progress and New National Era to publish these obituary resolutions, and that copies of the same be sent to our representatives in Congress from Allegheny county and to the bereaved relatives of our departed friend.

Several of those present spoke feelingly regarding the dead Statesman, but as the sentiments expressed were those embodied in the above, it is unnecessary to make a more extended notice of them.

After the adoption of the preamble and resolutions the meeting quietly adjourned.

AMUSEMENTS.

PITTSBURGH OPERA HOUSE.—The Fifth Avenue Theatre Combination appeared last evening in Augustin Daly's emotional play of "Alixe," to a very large audience. Taken all through, the performance was exceedingly good, the various characters being well represented. The exhibition of passionate feeling at times was particularly affecting, causing the eyes of many present to fill with tears, in the closing scenes. To day "Divorce" will be played at the matinee and also in the evening. On Monday evening Hernandez Foster will appear as Monday in "Jack Harkaway."

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—Carncross & Dixie's popular Minstrels continue to attract full houses, which is the strongest possible endorsement of the merits of the troupe. The singing, dancing, burlesque plays, &c., form an entertainment of the most pleasing nature, and the vast audiences attest their appreciation of the performances by the most vociferous applause. The Saturday matinee commences at half past two o'clock, and the evening performance at the usual hour. Seats for both exhibitions may be secured without extra cost.

LIBRARY HALL.—The third and last entertainment of "Ye Olde Folkes" was given last evening to a large and delighted audience. The more these exhibitions are known the better are they appreciated by the music loving public, as was evidenced at each succeeding performance at Library Hall. Mrs. Caroline Richings-Bernard has lost none of her richness of voice nor her attractiveness in all the requisites of operatic excellence, and she and her troupe have won universal commendation from the entire audience at each entertainment. "Ye Olde Folkes" appear at Oil City this evening, to the lovers of music of which place we heartily commend them.

ENGLISH OPERA.—The Holman English Opera Company, composed of twenty five artists and a full chorus, with the young and gifted prima donna soprano Miss Sallie Holman and prima donna contralto Miss Julia Holman, will give four of their delightful performances during the coming week at Library Hall, appearing on Monday evening in Balfe's beautiful composition, "The Bohemian Girl." The company is very favorably spoken of by our exchanges, and a pleasing entertainment may be anticipated.

The Holman English Opera Company will perform "The Bohemian Girl," in Liberty Hall, East End, this evening, thus giving the residents in that neighborhood an opportunity to witness that play, who cannot attend on other nights.

FREE CONCERT.—The choir of Christ M. E. Church will give a free musical concert at the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association, on Tuesday evening next.

THE THIRD GRAND MATINEE of the American Conservatory of Music is announced to take place next Saturday at Library Hall.

AMONG THE CHURCHES.

Brief Notes of Matters Personal and Otherwise.

REV. BISHOP FOSTER preached at Elizabeth, Pa., last evening.

A "REVIVAL" is in progress in the Third Methodist church, Rev. J. W. Ellis—Fifth avenue.

THERE will be no services in the Rev. Dr. Hanna's church—Second U. P., to-morrow afternoon.

SERVICES in the Central U. P. church, Allegheny, to-morrow at the usual hours, 10½ A. M. and 3 P. M.

REV. DR. L. F. MORGAN, formerly of Christ church, this city, is Presiding Elder of the Baltimore Conference.

THE revival at the East Liverpool church, Rev. W. P. Turner, pastor, has resulted in the accession of 196 members.

THE Rev. Boyd Vincent, of Erie, has not yet signified whether or not he will accept the call to Calvary church, East Liberty.

REV. L. M. GARDNER formerly of Liberty Street church, this city, has been sent this year to Winchester by the Baltimore Conference.

REV. BISHOP R. S. FOSTER, of the M. E. Church, is in the city, and is announced to preach at Christ M. E. church to-morrow evening.

WALTON CHURCH (M. E.), South Side, Rev Joseph Hollingshead, pastor, reports one hundred additions to the membership for the past year.

REV. D. M. URE, of Monmouth, Ills., is now on a visit to his friends in this vicinity. He is stopping with his brother, Dr. W. Ure, of Allegheny.

REV. E. J. GRAY, formerly of the North Avenue church, Allegheny, has been transferred from the Baltimore to the Central Pennsylvania Conference.

THE anniversary meeting of the Ladies Home Missionary Society of the M. E. Church will be held in Christ church, Penn and Eighth streets, to-morrow evening.

THE Second U. P. church, Allegheny, Rev. W. H. McMillen, pastor, had an accession of some thirty members at the Communion, which was celebrated last Sabbath.

THE Presbyterian, from Philadelphia, comes to us this week changed to a twenty page weekly—which seems to be the form to which all the religious weeklies are gravitating.

DR. HUNTER, of the Advocate, threatens when he "finds time and space" to ventilate the subject of "Sunday School Hymnology" Ventilate, Dr., ventilate—for there's plenty of room.

A MEMORIAL SERVICE will be held in respect to the memory of the late Senator Sumner, in Allen's A. M. E Chapel, Rev. T. A. Thompson pastor, to-morrow morning commencing at half past ten o'clock.

SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHERS are invited to the noon prayer-meeting to-day, at the room of the Y. M. C. A., from 12 to 12:45 o'clock, where the International S. S. lesson for to-morrow ("Bread from Heaven") is studied.

RIGHT REV. BISHOP KERFOOT has so far recovered his health as to be able to resume his visitations to the parishes throughout his diocese. His physician, however, advises him to refrain from preaching for some time yet.

WE understand that Rev. W. P. Campbell, of Little York, Illinois, has declined the call extended by the Fourth U. P. church, Allegheny, to become its pastor. This is the only U. P. church in Allegheny at present without a pastor.

TO-MORROW evening the Rev. W. H. McMillen of the Second church, Allegheny, will preach the annual sermon missionary sermon before the Ladies' Missionary Society of the Second U. P. church, this city (Rev. T. H. Hanna's.

REV. THOS. A. STEVENSON, Assistant Rector of Trinity church, after a year of useful and acceptable service, has resigned the position much to the regret of the minister and people of the parish. His resignation does not take effect, we believe, until Easter.

THE vestry of St. John's Episcopal church, in this city, have called Rev. Charles N. Spaulding, of New Brighton, to the rectorship of that parish, made vacant by the retirement of Rev. P. V. Finch. Mr. Spaulding is a brother of Dr. H. W. Spaulding of St. Peter's church.

THE PULPIT of the Fifth avenue Methodist church will be occupied to-morrow morning by the Rev. J. L. Rutledge, and in the evening by the Rev. Dr. I. C. Pershing, of the Pittsburgh Female College. The pastor of the church, Rev. Dr. Murray, is absent at conference.

COMMUNION services will be had in the Cumberland Presbyterian church, Sixth avenue, to-morrow. Meetings have been held during the week, when the pastor, Rev. E. K. Squier, was assisted by the Rev. Mr. Coulter, of Brownsville. To-morrow evening a temperance sermon will be preached from the text, "This is the finger of God." "I entreat thee also true-yoke-fellows help those women that labored with me in the Gospel."

MINISTERIAL members of the Pittsburgh M. E Conference are preparing for the annual sojourn at Conference, which commences at Blairsville next Wednesday. This Conference numbers about two hundred and fifty members, and embraces within its bounds parts of Eastern and Northern Ohio and Western Pennsylvania. All the M. E ministers in Pittsburgh are amenable to it. Bishop Foster presides at the gathering this year.

THE new German United Evangelical Church of Mount Washington will be dedicated to the sacred uses for which it has been erected, to-morrow, (Sunday) the 15th inst. Services at ten o'clock A. M. in German, and at two and a half o'clock P. M. in English, when the Rev. F. A. Noble, D. D., will preach. The occasion will be one of great interest to the enterprising people who have aided in providing a neat and comfortable house for the public worship of God, as well as to Christians of all denominations who favor the spread of evangelical religion.

A COURSE of three lectures will be given free in the Lecture Room of the First Methodist Church, Fifth avenue, Pittsburgh, by James Smith, author of "Infidelity Silenced," &c. The first on Monday, 16 March, at 7½ o'clock, P. M. Subject: "Proof of the Divine Inspiration of the Holy Scripture." The second on Thursday, 19 March, at 7½ o'clock, P. M. Subject: "The Battle of Armageddon and Slaying of the Two Witnesses." The third on Saturday, 21st of March, at 7½ o'clock, P. M. Subject: "The Millennium and the Battle of Gog and Magog."

THE Catholic wishes the Temperance Reform "God speed," but does not endorse the "movement because it does not reach to the root of the great evil of intemperance." The Catholic's idea is that "the antidote for intemperance grows only in Religion's beautiful garden of virtues, and the curse which has blighted so many of the human family, withers never to spring up afresh when the fragrance and aroma that comes from religion's conservatory, permeates the atmosphere hitherto impregnated with the flourishing germs of disease and degradation—etherializing and purifying the region over which it passes."

CITY FINANCIAL AFFAIRS.

The Nation Trust Company Depositors—Bonds of City Depositories—The Overdue Indebtedness of the South Side.

The Finance Committee held a meeting yesterday afternoon in the Controller's office, Municipal building, Mr. Aiken presiding.

A communication was received from the President of the Pittsburgh Savings Bank, accompanied by the bond given by that institution last year, and explaining that owing to the absence of several of the gentlemen who are to be security the present year, the new bond was not producable at that time.

The following was then passed:

Resolved, That if the Pittsburgh Savings Bank will give to the city of Pittsburgh, within ten days from this date, their bond in $400,000, with W. J. Kountz, J. T. Stockdale, W. W. Ackley, Owen Morgan, Edward Maginn, A. Weaver, Jesse H Lippincott, Andrew Ackley, and Thos. Rogers, Jr., as securities in due form of law and to the satisfaction of the City Attorney, we do approve of said security.

The resolution of Councils providing for a transfer of $18 000 from the contingent fund to the police appropriation, and referred to the Committee was reported back with a negative recommendation.

The following resolution presented in Select Council at its last meeting by Mr. Zern and referred to the Finance Committee came up for action:

WHEREAS, The stockholders of the Nation Trust Company are indebted to the city of Pittsburgh in certain sums of money which, as they believe to be amply secured by bond and mortgage, and

WHEREAS There are a large number of individual depositors in said bank who are in very needy circumstances, therefore,

Resolved, That the city of Pittsburgh waive their right to the dividend on the amount now collected by the Receiver and allow said amount to be divided to the individual depositors as soon as it can be done with the consent of the court.

After considerable debate it was finally concluded that the parties interested be directed to furnish the committee, at its next meeting, with a sworn list of the depositors of the Trust Company, together with the amounts due each.

The bond of the Duquesne bank, one of the city depositories, in $400,000 was presented and approved.

On motion, it was decided to pay the arbitrators between the city and the Nation Trust Company, Messrs. Veech, Howe and Holmes, $50 each for their services, and the Controller be directed to charge the amount to the N. T. Co., in accordance with the agreement that all the expenses should be paid by said company.

The Controller presented the bills of assessors for making out lists of taxables of wards under the new apportionment. Referred to the City Attorney.

The question of the payment of sundry bills for rent of Armories was mooted. It was explained that formerly the State provided for such expenditures, but as the act had been repealed it was thought the city was liable. Referred to a committee of three, Messr. Lloyd, Atterbury and Fulton.

Mr. Atterbury moved that temporary loan bonds be issued to meet the overdue indebtedness of the South Side wards.

After some discussion the matter was postponed until next meeting, in order to give the Controller an opportunity to furnish the exact figures of the sum due.

A bill of Bell & Weir, contractors, for work done the city when it occupied the old canal bed,—now Eleventh street, and for which the claimants got judgement in 1869, was presented and ordered to be paid, subject however to the rectification of any inaccuracies in it after an examination by the City Attorney. The amount with interest and costs is about $900.

Put This in Your Diary.

The well known and popular commission house of Messrs. D. McMillan & Co. will remove to 347 Liberty street, about April 1st, and will gladly receive their old friends and customers with their usual urbanity and an excellent assortment of fresh goods.

THE GRAND OPENING.

Mr. Kinder Blair's New Establishment Ready for Inspection—What will be Seen by Those Who Look into the New House—One of the Most Palatial Establishments in the West.

To-day we are able to announce that the new establishment of Mr. Kinder Blair, No. 29 Fifth avenue, will be duly opened for business, and an invitation is extended to the general public to call and see the house. From a tour through the establishment yesterday, we are prepared to say that all who do avail themselves of the grand opening to-day, will see one of the finest concerns of the character, that their eyes have ever looked upon.

The new headquarters, as has been heretofore mentioned, are located in the large building No. 29 Fifth avenue—the main floor being that which was until recently occupied by Messrs. Sands & Reineman. The building exteriorily, is one of the most handsomely proportioned in the city, and the lower floor is provided with two large show windows that give fine privileges for a full display of goods peculiar to the establishment.

THE SALESROOM.

Entering from Fifth avenue, the visitor first stands in the retail salesrooms, with tessalated floor, large show cases on either side, marble counters, and walnut cabinets, with glass doors lining the walls. This portion of the establishment extends about one-third the entire length of the room. It is here that the display of confections, fruits, cakes and pastry is made. Here also is a marble soda water fountain of a new pattern and of the most elegant design—something ahead of anything in that line in the city.

Passing back from the salesroom the visitor steps from tessalated floor to the softest Brussels, and from the retail business department to

THE GRAND SALOON.

This part of the house is furnished with a sky light, for illumination by day, and presents in this respect a bright and cheerful appearance not always to be obtained on the first floor. It is handsomely frescoed along the walls, and is provided with four large pier glasses, fine cushioned chairs, elegant marble top tables, and all the adjuncts of a refreshment parlor of the best character. All the appointments of the saloon harmonize, and there is everywhere displayed in its fittings, that cultured taste for which the proprietor is peculiarly distinguished.

In the rear of the saloon and in a large recess at the side is which is well lighted, well ventilated, and so commodious, that there will be no necessity for crowding, even with the increase of patronage which is sure to come. The accommodations in this department are so perfect, that the business can be conducted with dispatch. This department is fitted up in the same style as the main saloon—of which it forms a part, and ladies or gentlemen will find it especially convenient to save time and a journey home, when pressed with business or shopping.

Then there is

down stairs, which would we opine win ecomiums from the most fastidious housewife. It is provided with a steam apparatus for making ice cream; a Duparquet & Holt's mammoth French Range,—being only the second of the kind in the city; with shelvings, and troughs, and mammoth wash stands,—in short, all the necessaries for conducting the culinary exercises with rapidity and with cleanliness. This latter disideratum is a special feature of the house, and is one which commends itself, without comment. The food when prepared is taken up on dumb waiters, of which there are several, and the facilities are such that no "cold slops" are ever sent away from the kitchen.

On the third and fourth floors are the

which are fitted up for the accommodation of private parties. When he first resumed the confectionery business, it was the intention of Mr. Blair to eschew the "party" branch of the trade, but his old patrons gradually convinced him of his error in that direction, and he has accordingly changed his plan, and embraces this feature of the business, as in days when no party supper was considered complete unless he was the supervisor.

Thus the reader has a general idea of the new headquarters at No. 29 Fifth avenue, but a visit to the place would alone fully exhibit the great advance over anything of the kind that has ever been established here. And in passing, it might be in place to credit Messrs. Oliver McClintock & Co. with furnishing the carpet and Messrs. Beggs & Lindsay the markble work.

READY FOR BUSINESS.

Having thus supplied himself with all the facilities, Mr. Blair proposes to engage in all branches of the confectionery, cake and "party" business, and is prepared to receive the orders of his friends. We need not elaborate upon this point. It will suffice to say that he has laid in a fresh stock of goods for the new house to which he calls attention. It would be idle to attempt to enumerate the stock, but the ground is covered in the statement, that there is nothing known to the trade that cannot be found at No. 29. All the goods are manufactured expressly for the house and everything will be found pure.

In the management of the house the proprietor will be assisted by Mr. Skiles, who has developed capacities in that direction that gives assurance of courteous treatment, and a prompt supply of the wants of all patrons.

We congratulate Mr. Blair upon his good fortune in securing such a splendid location, and in having such a grand house, and add our good wishes that his enterprise may be rewarded, as it deserves to be, by a patronage that will even tax to the utmost his enlarged facilities.

SUCCUMBED TO WHISKY.

A Man Found Unconscious in the Street Dies in the Homeopathic Hospital—Coroner's Inquest.

Coroner McCallin yesterday held an inquest on the body of William H. Howard, who died at the Homeopathic Hospital yesterday morning. The deceased was picked up on Sixth street on Wednesday evening in an unconscious condition by officer Mackrell and taken to the lock-up. Dr. McCoy was summoned, who said the man was suffering from the effects of too much whisky, and that he could not tell what ailed him till he became more sober. During the night the man was removed to the lodging room and laid upon a bed, and Dr. McCoy again summoned, as he was groaning and still remained unconscious. That gentleman said the man was suffering from congestion of the brain, apparently, and wanted him removed to the hospital. As the city fails to furnish provisions in the lock up for cases like this, and the Police Committee does not allow the physician to hire a conveyance to take the unfortunate to some hospital, the doctor had no recourse but to leave the man under proper care where he was till morning. He then notified Mr. Fortune that the man was lying in the lock up and needed to be taken care of. The man continued to sink and the physician was again called, this time he peremptorily ordered the man to be removed. A little later the Chief of Police came in, and seeing the man's condition, again sent Officer Galley around asking Mr. Fortune to send the physician to see him, that the man was dying, but the reply he brought was, that the chief should mind his own business and when the doctor came he should be sent around. At two o'clock in the afternoon the physician came and then Captain Reed had the man taken by four men, on a stretcher to the Homeopathic Hospital. From the evidence adduced, it seems that the deceased was addicted to drink and that caused his death. A verdict of death from congestion of the brain produced by alcoholic stimulants was rendered. Howard was 34 years of age and leaves a wife. His father resides in Chester, Virginia. He had been but about six months in this city.

Shoe Reform—No Deception.

This being an age of deception and misrepresentation, people have become very suspecting. And nothing is more important than to be able to discern between the genuine and the counterfeit, especially in the matter of boots and shoes; yet most persons must rely on the representations of the dealer. To those who are seeking for an honest establishment, where they can save 20 per cent. in the purchase of boots, shoes and gaiters, we direct them to the store of Mr. R. Taggart, No. 129 Federal street, Allegheny, who makes a specialty of retailing his goods at wholesale prices, and who, as the citizens of Allegheny well know, has entire control at 129 Federal street, and that he is not one that practices deception or misrepresentation as to the quality of his goods in order to effect sales. For instance, he does not represent Split Leather as Kip, Buff as being Calf, Sheep as Morocco, Grain as Turkey and Men's Morocco, one-half welts as being double soles, Leather, Board or Shoddy insoles and counters as being solid sole leather, &c. It is well known to all that unscrupulous parties imitate and misrepresent all kinds of leather for the sake of gain; and here is an open field for reforming this abuse in trade. Encourage the effort of this establishment to break up this practice, by buying of Mr. R. Taggart, No. 129 Federal street, Allegheny, who warrants all goods to be true to his representations.

To the Editor of the Gazette.

DEAR SIR—Through the columns of your valuable paper we desire to call the attention of our numerous customers to the large line of hats and caps, for spring trade now being offered at our salesroom, No. 139 Wood street, Pittsburgh. Our past efforts to cater to the wants of the public being so generously appreciated, we feel encouraged to labor on more assiduously than before, and have endeavored, to the best of our ability, to select such stock as will give satisfaction.

Long experience and earnest attention to business, has given us advantages not to be acquired in any other way. These we bring to our aid, and are using them for the interest of our customers. We make a specialty of silk hats, and cordially invite all who desire a good hat to give us a call.

Agents for Dunlap & Co.'s celebrated silk hats.

Yours very truly,
WM. FLEMING & Co.,
139 Wood street.

Spring Styles—New Goods.

In the matter of spring suits the style in cloths has been so much modified, that a winter suit has become unfavorable and antiquated. We are led to this remark by an inspection of the new and fashionable styles which have been received by Messrs. Hespenheide & Co., of No. 50 Sixth street. The house is notable for being on the alert, for the latest styles in cloths, cassimeres, and vestings, and also in the manner of dress in suits. An examination of the stock which they have just received will convince the most exacting that they have been at unusual pains to procure a line of goods for the pleasure and gratification of their numerous customers. Their cloths are the finest of the fine, and of elegant finish and superb texture, and in the matter of style, everything which fancy could desire. Call soon at No. 50 Sixth street, examine the stock, order a suit to measure, and be fitted out in tip-top style.

A Lucrative Business Position.

The Union Central Life Ins. Co., one of the most prosperous Life Companies in the country, with assets over $1,000,000; net surplus $265,000, and issues Endowment Policies at Life-rates, desires to establish a General Agency in this city. Those desirous of such a position, will address N. W. HARRIS, Sec'y, THS Cincinnati, O.

All is not Gold that Glitters.

And especially is this the case with carriages and barouches purchased in the eastern market. They are mostly manufactured with an eye single to finish and style, at the expense of durability and good workmanship. Our home manufacturers having character, as well as bread and butter at stake, are more concerned in the production of an article that shall give entire satisfaction, and thus increase their business and reputation. But, while the extensive carriage manufactory of C. West & Co., Nos. 75, 77 and 79 Liberty street, continues in the business there is no necessity for a single eastern purchase, as they can defy competition in style, finish, ornamentation, material, durability and workmanship. Verify this advice by a purchase of one of their vehicles.

Hats, Hats, Hats,

Of every variety and style. From the extremely large to the very small sizes, a specialty at GRAHAM & MCGREGOR'S, No. 46 Federal street, Allegheny.

Rich, Rare and Beautiful.

The lovers of the rare and beautiful should make it their aim to call and inspect the very elegant collection of Bronze Figures, Groups, Vases, Pitchers and Black Marble French Clocks just received by Mr. George W. Biggs, Jeweler, of No. 159 Smithfield street. No assortment ever brought to the city will surpass these goods for richness, beauty of design and artistic finish. They are of the most unique and curious patterns, and are perfect specimens of art and skill. An inspection will fully satisfy the most circumspect of their richness and loveliness. Do not fail to see this superb display at 159 Smithfield street.

European Steamship Arrivals Yesterday.

A dispatch received at Max Schamberg's European Steamship, Exchange and Telegraph Office at No. 163 Smithfield street, announces the arrival of the Anchor line steamer Castalia, at New York; the Guion line steamer Manhattan, at New York; Cardiff line steamer Glamorgan, at New York; N. G. Lloyd line steamer Ohio, at New York.

Chocolate E'Clairs and Vanilla E'Clairs at Hubley's, 195 Penn avenue.

Still Endeavoring to Please.

The forte of Mr. B. Tiegel, No. 53 Smithfield street, is his constant aim to secure such a style of cloths, cassimers and vestings as must gratify the tastes of his customers. He has admirably succeeded in his spring styles, as an examination of his stock must convince. And that he is a success in the manufacture of neat fitting suits is beyond question. Give him a trial.

This Means Business

Governor Bramlette's card in the Louisville Courier-Journal, invites all the ticket-holders in the Public Library Gift Concert, to send delegates by the 20th of March, to co-operate with the management in seeing that every ticket is fairly represented in the drawing, which is to take place on the 31st inst. This means business, and it shows two things; first that the drawing is certain to come off, and those who want chances for prizes, which are ample fortunes, each one of the large ones, must purchase their tickets at once, or not at all.

Amusement and Instruction

which is recognized as the best in the market, is for sale by D. DeHaven & Son, No. 22 Wood street. This stove is a charming baker and roaster, is very cleanly, and exceedingly economical in the use of fuel. See it before you purchase any other.

Duquesne Wagon Works.

The general verdict in regard to the wagons and other vehicles manufactured by Messrs. C. Coleman & Son is that for ease in running, excellence of material and workmanship, and durability, they stand without a rival. Messrs. Coleman & Son exercise the greatest care and pains to construct nothing but honest work, and the satisfaction given by their manufactures, as also their great success in business, attest that they have fully succeeded in their endeavor. Works on Marion avenue, near Soldiers' Monument, Allewheny City.

····The Columbia Boat Club house was left up on the Allegheny wharf, near the Hand street bridge, by the last high water, and for several days past workmen have been engaged in moving it down towards the water. Yesterday the props dropped out and one end of the boat house dropped down to the ground. The cabin was considerably damaged.

····They have a of thirty-year-old gander in Georgia. It might be mated with the Gazette to advantage.—Post. Not much advantage. The Gazette is too old.—Leader. And if we had a couple of youthful and especially asinine donkeys, it would not be necessary to go beyond the doors of our courteous cotemporaries to find them congenial companions.

····John Bentz, of Allegheny, was before Deputy Mayor Neillie for beating and abusing his wife. He was fined $6 and costs. His wife, who had prosecuted him, then handed him a five dollar bill and walked away thinking that that was all that was needed, but as John didn't have sufficient to make up the costs, he was committed to jail for ten days.

PERSONAL.

An item lately found its way into the papers to the effect that Alexander Johnston, father of the late Governor William F. Johnston, is yet living near Greensburg, Westmoreland county. The Greensburg Tribune and Herald contradicts this story in toto, and says that Alexander Johnson died eighteen years ago, and his remains lie deposited alongside those of his wife and two sons in St. Clair cemetery in Greensburg.

The Sinking Saved.

The combination of tonic, alterative and stimulating properties in Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, especially adapts that famous specific to the cure of chronic forms of disease, when the strong influence of a long protracted morbid habit is to be surmounted. In chronic dyspepsia, and liver complaint, and in chronic constipation and other obstinate diseases, it is beyond all comparison the best remedy that can be taken. As a means of restoring the strength and vital energy of persons who are sinking under the debilitating effects of painful disorders, this standard vegetable invigorant is confessedly unequalled. The permanent tonics included in the preparation are associated with a diffusible stimulant absolutely pure, and the tendency of these elements is modified by the presence of alterative ingredients slower in their operation and capable of producing more lasting local and general effects. For feeble convalescents and in all phases of debility, it is the best as well as the most agreeable of restoratives.

ELEGANCE IN SPRING STYLES.

McCORD & CO.

Desire to call special attention to their very large stock of fresh spring goods, in hats and caps. Among the assortment is their favorite and very popular specialty—the

which, for handsome proportions, for lightness and for fine finish has no equal in the trade. These hats this season, promise to be more popular than ever, and to take the lead of all the styles. They are pronounced even by the most critical in the trade, as near perfection as can be reached.

The General Stock of Goods

at this House embrace an endless assortment of goods in every department of the trade—in every style of hats, caps, and straw goods. The collection of Men and Boy's Harvest, Leghorn, and Palm Leaf Hats, is unsurpassed, and in Ladies', Children's and Misses' Trimmed Hats, the variety is exhaustless. The house of is one of the oldest known in Pittsburgh's mercantile annals, and the experience gained in all these years, has been concentrated in making the establishment what it is at present. The firm claim, and are ready to substantiate their claim by figures that they cannot be undersold, and in some lines of goods can offer the advantages of lower prices than can even be obtained in eastern cities.

They merely ask an examination of their goods and prices, and desire wholesale and retail purchasers, to call at 131 Wood street to see the very latest styles, and secure the very best bargains.

Let us Reason Together.

Whether is it more profitable to purchase a paste-board, shoddy style of boot or shoe, or the genuine, durable article? Health, comfort and the purse say by all means get that which is the best, even if you should pay a little more in price. Then, to get a boot or shoe that will answer all requirements go to the store of William Martin, 108 Federal street, Allegheny, where you will find an extensive assortment of really excellent boots and shoes, at prices very fair and reasonable. Call and inspect his stock. He sells cheap.

Vanilla, Strawberry, Chocolate and Bisquie Ice Creams and Frozen Custard to-day at J. B. Hubley C Co.'s, 195 Penn avenue.

The Crisis.

The crisis is over and the crisis has begun. The financial crisis is over, but Governor Bramlette's call to the ticket-holders to send delegates to act with the management in supervising the drawing of The Grand Gift Concert of the Public Library of Kentucky, establishes the interesting fact that this momentious crisis has begun. Every ticket will be sold, there is no doubt on that point, and the drawing on the 31st inst. is certain as fate. Those who fail to get their tickets by delay, deserve to lose a splendid chance for fortune.

Malaga Grapes, Oranges, Lemons, Layer Figs, Deshesa Raisins, at J. B. Hubley & Co.'s, Library Building.

Deposit in the United States.

Without doubt, the regular deposit of funds in a Savings Bank is the surest road to wealth, and the United States Bank, at 123 Fourth avenue, offers to its patrons very liberal inducements. Investments in real estate may enhance in value, but investments in a Savings Bank must and do increase in a wonderful ratio. Begin at once and continue to place your savings regularly in the United States.
